QUEANBEYAN PALERANG REGIONAL COUNCIL EXCITING EXHIBITION

FORMER Queanbeyan City Councillor Sue Whelan opened this year's QPRC Art Competition/Exhibition and spoke of the many years she had been involved in the QAS Gallery heritage building.

Sue has served 33 years as a Queanbeyan City Councillor sitting on many Heritage Committees and the Gallery was always on her brief. She was delighted that the Queanbeyan Art Society has built a sound art society, making it one of the best in the region.

'Queanbeyan can be proud of its Art Society and this Exhibition is a wonderful example of the quality of art drawn to the QPRC Art Exhibition', Sue said.

Queanbeyan business Eurotune Motorcycles in Uriarra Road owner Anders Mykkeltvedt was a most interesting Guest Speaker.

His diversity in the arts and work astonished the members.

His world of art surrounds the walls of his Triumph motorcycle shop.

Standing: Sukhvinder Saggi, Diane Alder, Marijke Gilchrist, Jane Helmers, Nik Rajic, Margaret Piper, Nyree Mason, Andrew Smith, Belinda Ingram, Camelia Smith (Overall Winner), Amanda Denham, Mark Redzic, Eileen Slattery, Rosanna Burston. Seated: Vivien Pinder, Anne Sawkins, Anders Mykkeltvedt (Guest Speaker), Sue Whelan (QPRC), Sandra House.

QAS has a monthly Art Exhibition in the Queanbeyan Riverside Plaza window in Monaro Street. Our 'Artist of the Month' Vivien Pinder sold another painting from the window to Joan Joshua. Another member Mark Redzic also sold his work 'Pastoral Landscape' from the window. The QAS Committee is making a big effort to get new venues.

CHRISTMAS IN JULY AT QUEANBEYAN SHOWGROUND

THE QPRC 'Christmas In July' held at the Queanbeyan Showground proved a huge success for the Queanbeyan Art Society. Members rallied and the committee was able to put a nice Exhibition together. Eight paintings sold, four bears and five lots of cards. Vivien Pinder was the big seller and Nyree Mason and Belinda Ingram sold one each. Belinda sold four lovely bears. The big seller for QAS was the possible signing of new members, guest speakers and a 2017 Calendar sponsor, all gained from the 'Christmas In July' appearance. Well done to all involved!

SHOWGROUND SALES

Portrait Perfect

A weekend workshop with Julie Ballis, highly regarded portrait artist and tutor, will be held at the Queanbeyan Art Society Gallery, 6 Trinucle Place, 10/11 September 2016.

Everyone wants to paint a portrait: lots do, but few are able to capture the subtle nuances which bring a portrait to life. This workshop will get you on your way and refine those elusive portrait painting skills.

Julie - a long standing member, supporter, and past president of QAS - is a highly sought after portrait artist. We are very fortunate to have a portrait artist of Julie's calibre in the local area. Due to the high demand for her commission works Julie is seldom available to conduct a workshop. Don't miss this rare opportunity to learn portrait painting the Julie Ballis way.

Julie will be happy to guide you on your artistic journey, in most mediums.

Cost is $120 for QAS members, and $160 for non members. Further information re mode of payment, materials list, etc. will be sent to those persons who enrol.

Positions are limited. Please reserve your place by contacting me asap.

THANK YOU ISLA

I must apologise because the Australian Artist Magazine's August copy has printed my story of my safari in Botswana. They have made about three errors and the one I am most sorry about is at the end they have listed the societies I belong to. I sent them a list including the Queanbeyan Art Society but unfortunately they have omitted Queanbeyan. Probably because of lack of space. I wish to apologies to all the Queanbeyan Artists members and I feel really dreadful about it, and hope all will understand it was not deliberate on my part. I value my membership greatly with you all. Regards, Isla

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

THANKS to the QPRC for pulling together the 'Christmas In July' at the Queanbeyan

Showground because our members sold works and the Society had a chance to meet potential members, and gain new sponsors for the 2017 QAS Calendar. We even gained a guest speaker. A job well done to the committee, members and QPRC workers. I am particularly pleased with the diversity of the Society particularly with recent sales made outside of our Gallery. Secretary Rosanna has been active in organising the Christmas In July and the Riverside Plaza window Exhibitions and sales have been good at the venue. This is the last chance to make sure you have a photo of yours in the 2017 QAS Art Calendar. Please contact me before the end of the month. It was wonderful to catch up with Sue Whelan at the opening of the QPRC sponsored Exhibition and the Society owes her a great deal of gratitude for the preservation of the beautiful old building we use as a art gallery.

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston-
President
