A WET BUT WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS PARTY

THE wet weather did not dampen the 'spirits' at the QAS Christmas Party and the first Canberra Milk 'A Splash Of Milk' Art Award opening.

Margaret Carr's winning painting, Magpie Drinking from the Bird Bath, won the first 'A Splash Of Milk' Art Award. Margaret's winning image will go on the Canberra Milk bottle along with a short Bio of the artist. This is wonderful exposure for the artist and the Society will also get tremendous coverage. The Canberra Milk Competition/Exhibition attracted 125 works and was judged in five different mediums. The opening was held in conjunction with the annual QAS Christmas Party.

As usual plenty of effort went into the Christmas decorations to set the scene for a wonderful day and the cook John Burston had the BBQ fired up for our members and friends of the Society. Those who attended all joined into the spirit of Christmas and made it a lovely 'Art Of Christmas'.

Well known Art Judge Dennis Mortimer found the exhibition very exciting and a pleasure to judge. The winning work by Margaret Carr stole the show with the artist capturing the water dripping from the bird's beak a feature of drinking from a small bird bath.

From the Radio Station 2CC Eddy Williams 'painted' a great picture of the programming of a radio show, particularly early morning radio.

QAS LIFE DRAWING

LIFE drawing has been and continues to be an important practice for many artists, both established and new. Members who are looking to improve their observational and drawing skills may wish to consider joining one of the two weekly life drawing sessions offered by Queanbeyan Art Society. The two hour sessions are held in a relaxed and friendly environment on Monday afternoons from 2-4 PM and Thursday evenings from 7-9 PM. Run in blocks over an eight week period aligned to the NSW School Terms, life drawing includes two tutored sessions to help develop and improve your drawing skills. The cost for eight weeks is $140 paid in advance or $15 for individual non-tutored sessions and $30 for tutored sessions (total cost $150 for the term). This cost includes gallery hire, model fees, light refreshments and tutor fees (when applicable). Boards and a limited number of easels are available; members are expected to supply their own drawing materials and paper. Despite its significant history, life drawing sessions are open to anyone regardless of skill; you don't need to be a Da Vinci. The current Life Drawing term is soon to close for 2017 however if you are interested in joining us during 2018 then please register your interest with the Coordinator, George Acheson-Thorn by email: ge-jat@icloud.com or phone: 0434 903 236. The first term in 2018 will run from mid-February to late-March but please don't leave it until then to register your interest as places are limited.

THINK ABOUT SPONSORING?

MEMBERS are pleased with the monthly Art Competition/Exhibition, the committee is pleased with the members' support - on average 120 works each month and 17 awards. To compare this with a large Art Centre offering $3,000 plus in a major prize once a year and not getting 50 works entered proves we must be on the right track. QAS does not have a large sponsorship base and we have to manage the running of the Gallery and the committee must tread lightly. If we can increase our sponsorship we can enlarge awards for our members and keep the house (gallery) in order.

Jenny and Richard Lawson are the Society's most recent sponsors, donating to the 10th QAS Charity Art Show.

Please think about being a QAS sponsor, no matter how small!

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

WHAT a great year the Society has had and it has been a delight to be part of a committee that shouldered the wheel for our members and Friends of the Society. If members go to page 6 they will see the 2018 Calendar of Events. It is so pleasing to have such program for the year and the QAS MAP are on page 4. It was sad to hear the passing of Val Fitzpatrick - she was well respected in our art world. It was pleasing to see that QAS Life Member Phillip Grenike was recognised for his work as a community worker. Phillip was instrumental in keeping QAS 'alive' when it went through a bad patch with the help of wife Jill. This year is our 50th Anniversary and thank you to our 'silent' donation of the Members' Monthly $50 Jackpot. We thank you 'Mrs Big M'. Again what a wonderful Christmas Party and many thanks to all the effort that went into it, too many to mention. I believe that our newly sponsored December Art Competition/Exhibition will develop in one of the society's keenest for our artists. Not many winners will ever receive such exposure than on the Canberra Milk bottle.

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
President
