MEMBER'S STATEMENT

NEW VENTURE FOR QAS

This year's 11th Art Show in City Walk, Canberra will be surrounded by a Market which is expected to attract more people to the area and stall holders are welcome.

The stall hire will pay for the Art Marquee which has been paid for in previous years by sponsors and the use of the Defence Force tents.

The committee will be looking for as many paintings as possible from members to boast the 11th Art Show and of course it is open to all artists.

The interest for market stalls has been encouraging and if the combined events takes off it will be financially beneficial and help pay for Gallery improvement.

QAS has contributed $12,000 towards the new $120,000 gallery and the NSW Government plus the Palerang Regional Council granted the remainder.

The committee has drawn up a priority list of further needs for the gallery and if the 11th Art Show and Market goes well QAS will be in a good position to deliver the improvements needed.

The success of last year's $3 Book Stall will see another one this year and members are asked to donate and deliver good books (not Art Books) to the City Walk site and maybe buy a book or two to replace your book supply.

THE SCULPTURES ARE COMING

The Canberra based Strathnairn Sculpture Group are moving and are going to be part of the QAS and will bolster the art in our Gallery. Jim Sullivan the Sculpture Group representative convinced the committee that their art would play a huge part in our Gallery. Not only will they be able to display and sell their works, but sculpture classes will be held, possibly at night. We will need more storage and the sculpture 'boys' are rebuilding our garden shed to make it bigger for both parties.

Another plus is they will all become members of QAS.

A BIT OF HISTORY

A moment in time was captured at the new QAS Gallery inspection last week.

Gathered at the new Gallery entrance were five QAS presidents Judy Barber, Phil Greinke, Pam Padovan and Barry Cranston.

Many changes have been made over the years and all five have helped steer the ship over these years, but perhaps the largest building development of all is the new $120,000 gallery. All five have been passionate about QAS.

JULIE'S REWARD

QAS Life Member Julie Ballis receiving the NSW Monaro Award for her services to the community and the Arts. NSW Dept. Premier

John Barilaro and Member for Monaro presents the award to Julie. Served QAS as president and other positions. Well done Julie!

IT'S CURTAINS FOR GALLERY

CURTAINS now grace the windows of the new gallery, thanks to contributions of goods, and labour, by Debbie Collier and Gary Collier, Mark Redzic, Belinda Ingram and Pam Padovan. In addition, curtains now divide the middle gallery from back gallery, allowing the latter to be used for separate activities such as life drawing. Another wonderful effort by QAS members.

COASTAL GALS & GUYS

THIS is an email the QAS Committee receives every month: "I am doing the pick up delivery from the coast gals & guys and am hoping that it's OK to come on Friday after 10am. Hopefully someone will be at the gallery where I can do the change over. Hope you're not all frozen up with the cold weather conditions. It's cold here so I imagine even cooler and whiter there".

QAS Committee member Dee Hogan meet Nina Poulton. Thank you CGG we appreciate your effort getting your art to and from the QAS Exhibitions!

NEW WEEKLY PAINTING CLASSES

QAS members! If you are looking to paint in the company of others, in air conditioned comfort and with the kettle on the boil, the information shown below indicates opportunities and contacts at QAS. The extension is now finished. It is light, bright and beautiful. Jenny Robbins is still on sick leave. She is getting stronger and missing her beloved students. Dee Hogan is keeping the gallery open each Tuesday and hopes Jenny's students will paint with her till Jenny's return. Hope to see you at QAS, armed with all your painting gear. The contacts shown below will be able to advise on what happens on a particular day, and what space is available. Back page >>

MEMBERS are asked to submit new Judges and Guest Speakers to committee.

QAS MEMBER PROFILE

THE committee would like to thank Dee Hogan for hanging this Exhibition. Excellent comments have come from the Members' Profiles. Interested QAS members please contact the Secretary. Members please note the list of the yearly program for 2018. This MAP will hang for a month. The MAP Exhibition has been successful in selling members' art.

FOLLOW THE ART TRAIL

DRAFT dates at this stage for the 2018 QPRC Art trail:

Queanbeyan, Captains Flat, Bungendore and surrounds - Saturday 20 and Braidwood and surrounds - Saturday 3 November and Sunday 4 November. Again we would like you to be open from 10am – 4pm both days if possible.

SPONSORS NEEDED

MEMBERS are asked to seek sponsorship as the coming year will be more demanding on QAS finances than usual, we need to support the new Gallery and paint the main building inside and out. Sponsorship can come in many different ways, such as the naming rights for an Exhibition, naming a Media Section, QAS Calender month ad, Newsletter ad, and enter more works in Exhibitions. The bigger the pool the more awards for QAS members.

BRING AND BUY

MEMBERS can do their bit to support the QAS Bring and Buy in November and Karen Hall is the contact. It is helpfully if Karen knows in advance what is coming so as to prepare. This is always a huge fundraiser for the Society.

WANTED - MEMBERS STATEMENT

MEMBERS are asked to consider supplying their Art Statement as below (Stuart Marshall). It is always interesting to know more about fellow artists. It may even attract a commission!

NEW MEMBERS

QAS are always getting new members and we try and make all them feel welcome. So please go out of your way to communicate with new members!

QAS MEMBER'S ART STATEMENT

STUART MARSHALL had an early interest in drawing, and later photography, which he pursued for many years.

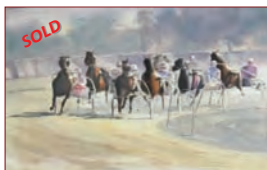

However, his interest in watercolour painting only commenced in the early 1990s, spurred by his father's painting and the gentle beauty of the medium. He studied under Jan Vincent and has participated in workshops with Ray Barnett, Joseph Zbukvic, Malcolm Beatie, Malcolm Carver, Ross Patterson, Amanda Hyatt, David Taylor, Greg Allen, Nell Anderson and Chan Dissanayake.

He is a member of Queanbeyan Art

Canberra-based group

Society and Art in Miniature, a specialising in miniature art.

He has participated in local and regional exhibitions and has tutored a number of watercolour workshops for beginners. His favourite

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

THE response to Jean's Gallery Painters and Members Exhibition proved the esteem

Jean was held in by our members. A true Captain of the Gallery no wave was to high for her, always able to navigate at the Gallery but always a friend!

QAS has taken on another huge step to deliver the 11th Art Show in City Walk, Canberra by introducing Market Stalls around the art marquee and this will pay for the cost of the marquee. In the past the cost of the marquee was covered by sponsors and the army tents.

Again we will be having a $3 Book Stall ('Manned' by Marjike) and we will be looking for members to come forward and help put this whole show on the road. If it goes the way we believe it will it could be a huge financial benefit to QAS.

We need a few extras funds after contributing $12,000 to the new $120,000 QAS Gallery development and I would ask members and other artists to contribute by entering works, spreading the word re the opportunity of taking up a Stall 'In The Heart Of Canberra' for nine days over Floriade.
