ART ASSISTS AUTISM

QUEANBEYAN Art Society will hold the 9th Charity Art Show in City Walk, Canberra a week over the 2016 Floriade.

Eight charities have benefited from this annual Art Show and The Ricky Stuart

Foundation (a local charity) will be the recipients from the 2016 and it is open to all artists. The 9th QAS Charity Art Show will open on Saturday 24th September 2016 and will come down on Monday 3rd October 2016. The paintings come from a wide region to support this popular charity. There will be 400 works of all mediums under tents in City Walk, Canberra. Entries close on Friday 16th September 2016. The Ricky Stuart Foundation would not be possible without the generosity and support from community organisations like the Queanbeyan Art Society. The Foundation was setup in December 2011 with the support of PwC to help Ricky raise awareness for autism. Goals are to raise enough funds to directly support the after-care for autistic people and help families who struggle daily with autism. Foundation endeavours to leave a positive, fun and supportive impact on the community in which we live. Ricky said, 'I would like to thank the Queanbeyan Art Society for supporting the Foundation it means a lot to me and autism sufferers.'

QAS President Barry Cranston said, 'the committee was keen to support a local charity this year'.

MOLONGLO ART

THE VAL FITZPATRICK GELLI PLATES WORKSHOP

Val Fitzpatrick, Ingrid Grevins, Georgina Poulos, Karen Hall, Margaret Redzic, Paula Fleming, Jane Helmers, Patricia Fleming, Margo Pfeife, Christine Lee, Margaret Wells and Di Mortimer.

BAGS were lugget into the gallery and heaved onto tables already groaning under the weight of art gear. Under Val's careful tuition, the contents of those bags were transformed into lovely coloured papers only to be torn up and rearranged into even more beautiful collages. Light and dark, rhythm of colour, shapes sympathetic to each other or otherwise - Val's imagination and enthusiasm for art and teaching knows no boundaries. Gelli plating is a lot of fun and Val showed us how we can have fun and, with a little art discipline, produce a magical piece of art.

Thank you Val.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

IT is pleasing to see our Art Society going into the 9th year for the QAS Charity

Art Show which the committee and members happily put together. This open to all artists art show is also advantages to the society as well as the charity because we not only raise valuable funds for the designated charity QAS gains new members, sells paintings and able to give great exposure of what the Society is about.

Good promotion! This year the committee decided to support a 'local charity' The Ricky Stuart Foundation.

A good story page one re the AD&amp;FAS supporting QAS with book donations and buying paintings and holding their monthly meetings in the Gallery, two good community societies. This years Molonglo Catchment Exhibition was opened by Bill

Willis the President of the
