MOLONGLO EXHIBITION MAKES A MARK

KAREN WILLIAMS President of the Molonglo Catchment, judged a strong set of entries.

On behalf of Karen, Tom Baker of Queanbeyan Landcare described the complex area of the catchment - the rivers, tributaries and where the rivers meet Lake Burley Griffin.

Majura to Michelago is an area of historic importance and cultural strength, diverse flora and fauna, industrial precincts, retail and farming too. The airport is also an important use of the land as well as the twin cities of urban and government uses. The Molonglo Catchment Group oversees the harmonious interactions of all these land uses, natural and man-made and in particular monitors how they affect the natural environment which sustains us all.

The Art Society once again had a successful Molonglo Catchment Art Exhibition with five paintings sold before 'afternoon tea' was served!

DAVID HATTON THANK YOU FOR THE MEMORIES

THANK YOU ROS

Hi Everyone,

I was talking to a friend who is a member of a new choir called "the Canberra alchemy choir" which is for people with dementia Alzheimer's etc and their carers.

My friend does not have this but has been singing in choirs for years. You might already know this, but on Wednesday May 24th Anne sang at the Portrait Gallery at 6.30pm.

David Hatton was in hospital at this date but Ursula was there and donated one of David's paintings which was auctioned for charity and sold for $3000.

Thought this of interest and just wanted to tell people. Regards, Ros Archer.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

In my time with QAS I have not met anyone more dedicated, helpful and the same to everyone he came in contact with than David Hatton. His love of his craft spilled over to everyone.

he came across and it is members like David that 'paint' what it really means the love of art!

On behalf of all QAS members thank you David for the memories!

The Molonglo Catchment Exhibition once again has proved a huge success and a big thank you to the sponsors it allows the Society to offer so many awards in five mediums. To sell five paintings at the opening was a wonderful result for our members. The idea of having a sticker 'This painting Sold Art' on the back of the sold works from the QAS

Gallery it is a good idea to promote the Exhibitions!

Another idea the committee has is to 'explain' what the theme of the Exhibition is on the entry form.

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
President

The weekend covers tone, temp, colour mixing, composition, atmosphere, reflected light, reflections and other subtleties of the Australian landscape.

WORKSHOPS

Roe Gartleman—AUA (Arts & Edn) Hons; Dip. Teaching(Art); FRSSASA, Nov 18/19 Acrylics/Mixed Media

This workshop is for intermediate to advanced painters wishing to extend their skills by working outside their comfort zone. We will be combining more than one medium in our work with an emphasis on design, colour and composition. Where possible I like participants to work directly from a subject. If this is not possible the way to approach working from photos will be explored."
