WONDERFULL EXHIBITION

This year's Julie Ballis Portraits, Jill and Phillip Grenike Drawings and QAS Miniatures sponsored Art Competition/Exhibition attracted 140 works and the judges claimed they could have given more awards for such a excellent exhibition. In saying that they added to the sponsorship to cover extra awards not advertised in the entry form. On opening day last Sunday seven works were sold and others have 'hold' stickers on them. The three sponsors judged the Miniature Section and in handing out the awards were full of praise for the high quality of the miniature and small works entered. After such a huge success of this year's exhibition the sponsors are planning for next year and promising to add to the variety of new ideas to make entry even more attractive. The main gallery was smothered with miniatures. This Exhibition will hang until the end of November 2016. These three QAS Life Members Julie, Jill and Phillip have been wonderful supporters of the Society and this Competition/Exhibition for many years.

ART ON THE BRIDGE

ARTIST Mike Shankster based in Jindabyne painted his beautifully art on the Queanbeyan Bridge in front of the QAS Gallery. The art work is not finished but the art is more than welcomed. Thank you QPRC!

TIM TICKS UP EIGHT

QUEANBEYAN'S former Mayor Tim Overall has always been a huge supporter of the QAS Charity Art Show and only missed one in nine years. Tim is pictured praising the Societies effort over nine years.

ACRYLIC WORKSHOP

HELEN Cottle acrylic workshop on Sat/Sun 19/20 November at Queanbeyan Art Society two last minute vacancies have occurred. Cost is $120 for members and $160 for non members.

Helen is a self-taught/self-educated artist who paints in all mediums in a realist/impressionist style. She has been inspired by various artists past and present, choosing the works of Arthur Streeton, John Singer-Sargent, Harold Herbert, closely studying their brushstrokes and techniques.

Helen has recently moved into acrylic and mixed media. No matter which medium is chosen, she believes that having a fascination with the effects of light on a subject and observing life's intriguing details, everyday views can be transformed into dynamic and interesting works of art.

"I enjoy all subject matter, however, the subject itself can determine the medium I choose to work in, it may require the fluidity and beauty of watercolour or the direct impact of acrylic paint to convey my personal vision. My approach may be fast and spontaneously or could take many hours, days or weeks to complete my goal. I enjoy the challenge of realist work as well as an intuitive, contemporary or abstract approach to a subject which can allow true creativity to shine and above all I am seeking a sense of balance and harmony." Please email or phone me to book one of the last two places available, asap. Rosanna Burston Sec. 0418863428 rosanna.burston@gmail.com

WORKSHOP FOR CHILDREN

THE Queanbeyan River Festival proved a huge success and QAS took advantage of the big crowds on the bank of the Queanbeyan River.

The Queanbeyan and Palerang Council supplied painting materials for the Society to conduct Children Workshops and they 'flocked' to the idea. Secretary Rosanna Burston (ex school teacher) was in her element tutoring the kids, mums and dads laughing playing and of course painting. Wave after wave they came into the working gallery for the family painting workshops.

No doubt many of these budding artists will be future members of our Art Society after their great day 'playing with Art'.

BRING AND BUY A HUGE SUCCESS

THE QAS Bring and Buy held at the Gallery last month proved a huge success with over $500 going to the Society funds supporting the Art Competition/Exhibition awards and prizes.

Members Karen Hall and Patricia Fleming pulled together this wonderful collection of art materials and 'goodies' which was well sought after by those who attended the exhibition opening.

Many thanks to the members and Friends of the Society who gave to the Bring and Buy! Members please consider giving those not used extra art materials which is taking space in your studio. Members keep a eye on the dates as the 2016 Christmas Party may be the next Bring and Buy.

WANTED
Minute Secretary

THE QAS workload for the committee has increased in recent years and our committee needs help from time to time. Our secretary Rosanna Burston is one who can never say no if it is needed to be done but we are over working her at the moment and the committee is looking for a minutes secretary. Of our 300 plus members we must have someone who would like to give the president an email or ring and help the Society in this position. Only one committee meeting a month, the last Saturday of each month.

We need your help!

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

THE response to this years Drawing, Portrait and Miniature Competition/Exhibition suggests the Society should try and offer more of the same because it appears this is the combination our members like to paint. Combining the three allows such a variety and our members have excelled. The Society is lucky to have Life Members Julie Ballis, Jill and Phil Greinke to continually sponsor this excellent Exhibition. What a great response from members and friends of the Society to the Bring and Buy held last month which raised $500 in an afternoon. A big thanks to Karen Hall and Patricia Fleming, these 'Girls' not only had the till ticking over but made it enjoyable to bring and buy. Remember this money goes back into the Art Awards for members.

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
