THE 2017 10th CHARITY ART SHOW

A good crowd gathered at the Ballis/Greinke Drawing, Portrait and Miniatures Opening on Sunday 5th November. Generous sponsors Julie Ballis and Jill and Phil Greinke presented the prizes and encouragement. The members and friends were interested to hear Julie speak of her own art development while showing 14 selected artworks that have informed her own art and portraiture making. Jill spoke of the challenge of selecting winners from the equality works entered and that she was always seeking works that viewers relate to because of the emotion or spirit that the work creates in the viewer. Jill, Phil and Julie gave extra prizes and certificates for Life Drawing and Portraiture and Julie presented her now Annual Trophy for Best Portrait 2017 to Jenny Sheppard for her portrait of Chris Hood.

QPRC ART TRAIL A SUCCESS

THE 11th QPRC Art Trail was a huge success as far as the QAS was concerned with good numbers of visitors to the Gallery. The two day event attracted people from the region and many locals who had never visited the Gallery before and were impressed.

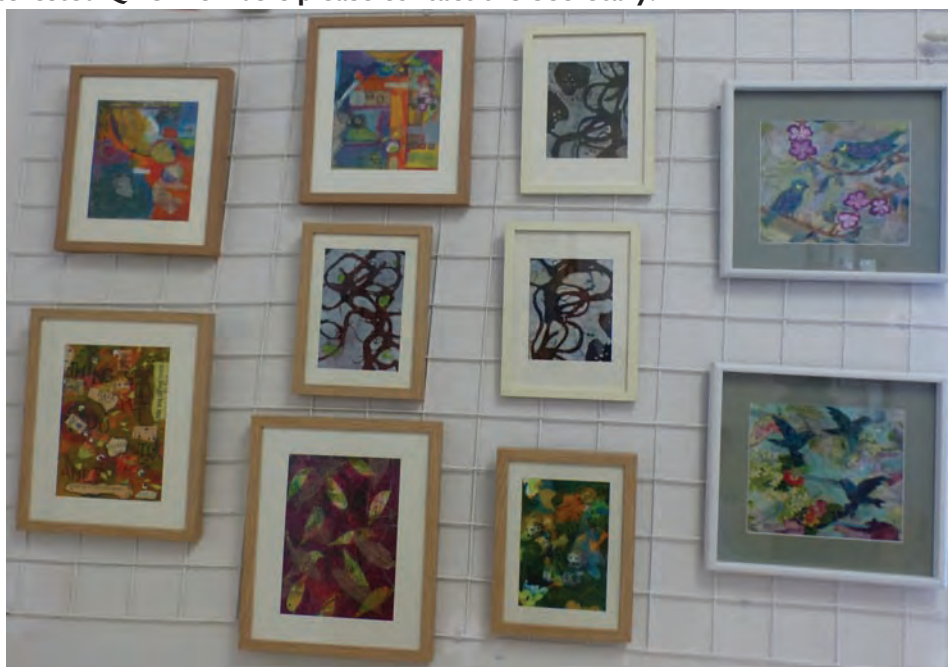

Many QAS committee and members volunteered to welcome the 115 visitors to the gallery, including Mita and Siva Nathan. The Gallery's new Book Stall proved popular and more stocks had to replenish the shelves. New members were signed up on the spot after hearing about the QAS list of activities.

Georgina Perri (Cultural Development Officer Queanbeyan-Palerang Regional Council) was delighted with the response to the QPRC 11th Art Trail from the venues and the visitors.

QAS MEMBERS' PROFILE

THE committee would like to thank Di Mortimer for hanging her Exhibition. Excellent comments have come from the Members' Profiles. Interested QAS members please contact the Secretary.

GALLERY HISTORY GATHERS

LEIGH PAINTS IN KENYA

MEMBER Leigh Murray returned from Kenya after a 10 day stay, working and making successful sales of African wildlife work. Leigh commented on the great experience being surrounded by the peace and quiet, and of watching the continual procession of animals past the tent and the main lodge. It provided much inspiration for Leigh's beautiful work.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

WHAT a wonderful sponsorship from Canberra Milk 'The Splash Of Milk Art Award'

that will be 'Splashed' all over on the Canberra Milk Bottle. This could become the 'Hairy Archie's' in time. Canberra Milk will be involved at the QAS Christmas Party something new members. It is pleasing to see so many new members joining the Art Society. It is a combination of holding an Art Show in City Walk Canberra, the Art Trail, people coming off the street and from Art Groups. The committee is always working hard to make sure QAS is meeting the 'needs' for our members such as Art Competition/Exhibitions every month, Workshops, Art Classes, Art Groups, Guest Speakers, Monthly Newsletter, Annual Art Calendar and Art Sales etc. If members know of someone who might want to become a QAS member please give them a membership form, the society has a great deal to offer.

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
President

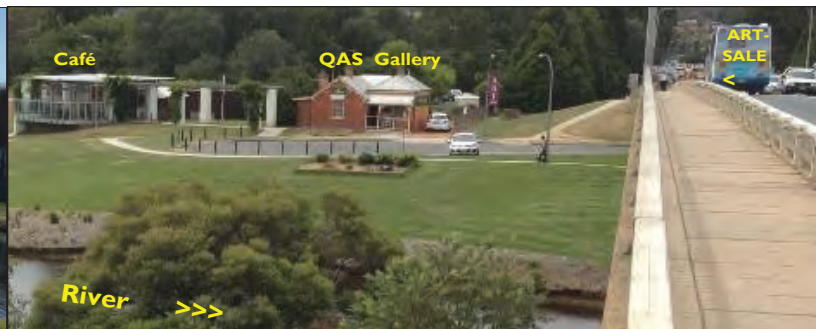

The committee is always on the look out for ways to improve the years art programme and you will hear more about the 'Young Artists Competition/Exhibition'. Members are welcome to through in their 'sixpence' worth the committee would welcome it.
