ART SUPPORTING CHARITY

THE Queanbeyan Art Society has been holding a Charity Art Show for nine years and the 2016 QAS Charity Art Show in City Walk, Canberra has proven to be the most successful so far.

The charity to benefit from this year's Art Show is The Ricky Stuart Foundation (a local charity). Chris Bourke ACT MLA, the Minister For The Arts, opened the event and Queanbeyan region administrator Tim Overall attended his eighth QAS Charity Art Show. Tim recognised the effort applied by Queanbeyan Art Society over this period contributing to a different charity every year and he was proud to represent the City of Queanbeyan. The Art Show was held over nine days and it proved to be a wonderful effort by the QAS Committee, members and Friends of the Society.

Not only did the charity greatly benefit from the show but the Society had the opportunity to promote what is available at our Art Gallery (a warm inviting atmosphere and the opportunity to be involved in art). We ran out of membership forms, had good sales of the 2017 QAS Art Calendar and there is a possible sponsor coming from the event. This event brings together members who may never get a better chance to 'work' with other members and really enjoy their company. Of course even the best planned event has to face some problems and the weather threw up some challenges, never being the day twice. The Society has good support from loyal sponsors and we thank them and look for their involvement for the 10th QAS Charity Art Show in 2017. Another feather in the Society's hat is that we should be proud of what we have done for charity through Art!

WINNERS IN QAS OCTOBER EXHIBITION

QAS members showed their commitment when they 'presented' 90 works for the monthly QAS October Art Exhibition at the Gallery. The Society members bolstered the 9th QAS Charity Art Show with paintings and many rewarded with sales.

Back: Pamela Kowald, Leigh Murray, Joy Williams, Belinda Ingram, Karen Hall and Barry Cranston (Pres.).

PORTRAIT WORKSHOP WITH JULIE BALLIS

Julie Ballis has 25 years of instructing portraiture – what a wonderful achievement. Julie was delighted to have Camelia Smith, one of her models 15 years ago, as a participant in this Sept workshop. Ably assisted by her husband Geoff, Julie provided an elevated theatrical setting to enhance the subjects: Graham Adler, violinist, in top hat, tails and bright bow tie; and Julie's daughter Renee, her long blonde hair topped by an elegant flowing hat - both excellent models. Julie began by explaining the importance of the initial drawing up of the subject, ensuring it fits comfortably within the canvas. She continued to demonstrate how to measure facial features in relation to each other, tonal values and colour mixing. Students received caring and thoughtful tuition. They expressed their appreciation of Julie's generous and broad ranging knowledge which was delivered in a fun and enjoyable environment. One comment was that "I have learned a lot and by practising I hope to retain the knowledge gained." In conjunction with artist quality oil paints, Julie uses Turpenoid to clean brushes and Liquin as the medium, ensuring low or no odour. Others who have issues with oils and associated fumes might find these products very useful. There were no fumes in the gallery at this workshop. The morning and afternoon tea supplied by Belinda and Pam was well received and many took the opportunity to enjoy lunch from the Riverside Café. A most enjoyable weekend was had by all. Good company and friendship. What more could one wish for.

WANTED

WANTED MINUTES SECRETARY

THE QAS workload for the committee has increased in recent years and our committee needs help from time to time. Our secretary Rosanna Burston is one who can never say no if it is needed to be done but we are over working her at the moment and the committee is looking for a minutes secretary. Of our 300 members we must have someone who would like to give the president an email or ring and help the Society in this position. Only one committee meeting a month, the last Saturday of each month.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

AS President of QAS I am particularly proud of the efforts by our Committee, members and Friends of the Society in pulling together the 9th QAS Charity Art Show in City Walk, Canberra.

Who would have thought in its infancy this event would develop into a wonderful charity event, social event and promotional event. We are lucky some of our 'workers' have been with us all the way and this of course gives us a great deal of strength and new members have given clearer guidance to produce the product we have today. We must thank the sponsors along with the choirs, bands and demo artists which added that lovely touch to the Outdoor Art Show. I would like to thank Gary Caldow for arranging The Janet Anthony 'Coastal Art Weekend' at Narooma and I am sure the winner Margaret and Mark Redzic will enjoy their weekend. It was nice to meet Emma Stonham from The Ricky Stuart Foundation.

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
President
