REMEMBERING JOY

It is not easy to speak of either Joy or Derek Rogers separately. They remind me of the Frank Sinatra song which went along the lines of "love and marriage, love and marriage, go together like a horse and carriage. This I tell you brother, you can't have one without the other". Joy painted mostly in gouache and won many a prize for her work. She gladly volunteered her time at QAS, for years, as a committee member and had a term as secretary. Joy was a great support to Derek in his many years as QAS Treasurer. Joy and Derek were very generous sponsors - contributing gifts of frames and framing to QAS prize winning artists. When the only heating in the gallery was the small open fire, which went on to be a fan forced closed in wood heater, all well before the magic of air conditioning, Joy and Derek ensured the fire was going, and the gallery warm for those of us attending classes. For many years Joy and Derek took monthly art orders from members, shopped at Peppi's art store, (now Eckersleys) for the goods and returned to the gallery, armed with boxes of goodies. This bulk purchase resulted in good savings for members. This was in the days prior to shops giving individuals the discount currently available. Joy and Derek provided this service because this is the type of people they are - always giving to others. This is just one example of their generosity of spirit. The ongoing dedication, by this couple, to QAS resulted in them being awarded life membership of the Society. Joy was the artist, Derek was the framer. Being colour-blind, Derek could see tone but not colour. Joy, his right hand woman, was always on hand to assist customers select the correct mat board and frame. She was the quality control. Joy was always interested in the welfare of other people. Although she had her own health issues, Joy took a positive outlook on life and looked forward to a better day ahead. QAS was but one small chapter in the life of Joy Rogers. A wonderfully warm, caring and loving person, Joy will be sadly missed by all those who had the good fortune to have the privilege of her company and her friendship. To have been given this opportunity to pen a few words about the years I have known Joy, has been a trip down memory lane. Wonderful memories. Thank you, Joy. Pam Padovan

SPONSORS NEEDED

MEMBERS are asked to seek sponsorship as the coming year will be more demanding on QAS finances than usual, we need to support the new Gallery and paint the main building inside and out. Sponsorship can come in many different ways, such as the naming rights for an Exhibition, naming a Media Section, QAS Calendar month ad, Newsletter ad, and enter more works in Exhibitions. The bigger the pool the more awards for QAS members.

BRING AND BUY

MEMBERS can do their bit to support the QAS Bring and Buy in November and Karen Hall is the contact. It is helpfully if Karen knows in advance what is coming so as to prepare. This is always a huge fundraiser for the Society.

Dear QAS members,

I am moving soon and must seriously downsize. Perhaps you could help me do so and also help our society, not to mention acquiring some works or materials at "give away" prices! As well as my own and other paintings, there are canvases and boards, both new and used (for recycling) various types of paper and media, books, easels etc. Many items are free or gold coin donation at your discretion to Queanbeyan Art Society. Come to Unit 1, 8-10 Ernest Street, Crestwood, Queanbeyan between 10am and 4pm, Saturday 11 August. There may even be refreshments! June Boblom.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

THE loss of Joy Rogers is a sad moment in QAS, a lovely lady who gave much of her life to the Society. She was granted Life Membership for her service and it was her kindness, her companionship and her friendship to many that she will be remembered for!

Congratulation to our four members chosen to be the Guest Artists in the 11th Annual Art Show in City Walk, Canberra. For those who don't know the committee select four members to be the Guest Artists each year and they are granted the first four bays in the Art Show for free entry but they donate a painting for the annual QAS Raffle.

Thank you to all the members who took part in the Council Christmas In July at the Queanbeyan Show Ground. It was well received as QAS was represented by members art. Welcome to the Canberra Sculpture Group who have joined QAS, we hope you enjoy your art with us and the friendship of the society.

Last week we had a final inspection on the new 'Working Gallery' facility by Council and the report will come back soon.

The committee is pleased with members thoughts re the new facility and have taken on board many ideas. The committee is keen to make the 11th Charity Art Show with a Market a huge success and hope members make the effort to enter their art.
