ART SHOW YEILDS RECORD SALES

THE Queanbeyan Art Society's 12th Annual Art Show and Market in City Walk, Canberra has been a huge success with a record $15,000 worth of art sold in a nine day period over the Canberra Floriade.

It was a new adventure for the Art Society to 'tackle' an Art Show and Market at the same time but with a wonderful combined effort from the committee, members and friends of the Society it proved to be 'a masterstroke' to move art in the region and promote QAS. The Society proved there is a need for more art to be presented in this fashion to the public and with an average of 800 viewers per day going through the Art Marquee in 'The Heart of Canberra'. In previous years it has been a mammoth effort to secure sponsors to cover this event's expenses but this year QAS has covered all expenses and recovered enough to pour back into the QAS Gallery needs. Thank you members and visiting artists for boosting the entries the most ever, this of course led to more sales. It was great to see so much involvement from artists and of course the Markets really added some strength to the whole event. Some of the benefits apart from many sales included spreading the QAS word, gaining new members, art commissions, guest artists exhibitions, QAS 2019 Art Calendar sales, QAS Art Raffle Sales and the draw for the National Art Gallery, National Portrait Gallery and QAS memberships for twelve months. Over the nine days the Society succeeded in 'selling' QAS and moving a record number of works for this event in the 'Heart of Canberra' over Canberra's Floriade. By all accounts artists and stall holders were happy with the event and QAS has set the benchmark for the future in moving regional art.

INAUGURAL YOUNG ARTIST SUCCESS

THE inaugural Australian Decorative Fine Arts Society Molonglo Plains Young Artist Art Competition/Exhibition was held at the Queanbeyan Art Society Gallery, judged and hung for the month of October 2018. President of the ADFAS Molonglo Plains Carole Polson officially opened the Exhibition and presented the $1,000 awards sponsored by ADFAS to the winning artists. Goulburn Regional Gallery Education Officer Sally O'Neill judged the event and praised the project as being ideal to promote art in the Queanbeyan/Molonglo Region. The judge praised the quality of the art and believed the event has a sound future. The Society was pleased with the interest shown for the first attempt at staging a young artist competition/exhibition. Close on 100 works were entered from regional schools and considering it was staged over the school holidays it was a great result. A excellent crowd attended the opening with many parents looking to enhance their artists skills. Two paintings sold at the opening!

A BIG THANKS

THANK you Stall Holders from Queanbeyan Art Society for your participation in our inaugural market in City Walk, Canberra. It was great to meet you all, thanks very much for your efforts, and to see your products and the care with which you presented your products and stall. There were amazingly unique goods in your stalls. Thanks for the posts you made on Facebook and Instagram. Glad you liked the live music in the first weekend especially. We had the Queanbeyan Pipes and Drums and they drew a big crowd very quickly. City Walk was beautiful. We had pleasing interest from the City Renewal/Activation people who came along to see what was offered, view our art interactive activity and give us the deckchairs etc, relax and take part. The deckchairs were very popular as the Spring weather encouraged people to slow down in City Walk and there was a letter to the Editor of Canberra times on Saturday asking where they had gone. We returned them, hope someone puts them put regularly now and creates some new life in the space. It's a prefect space for market stalls. We know that some stalls had pleasing sales and others not as much and we wish everyone had had a great result. Thanks Dave Metal guy for saying, it takes a while for people to see what's there!

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

WHAT a wonderful 12th Annual Art Show and Market in City Walk, Canberra over nine days of the Canberra Floriade, but my palette is not large enough to thank everyone. Your committee was courageous to 'tackle' such an event of this magnitude. The inclusion of the market stalls added to the work load but they boosted the finances to help cover the expenses. Rosanna, Nyree and Rachel managed to get this part of the show on the road while Belinda managed the Art Show 'office'. Of course if one does not think there are many numbers to add up for a successful event ask treasurer Dee. Sorry if I failed to name all but a special thanks to our members who responded to enter and made it the most successful 'Art in the Heart of Canberra' ever! What a Double Header it was for QAS to hold the inaugural ADFAS Young Artist Art Competition/Exhibition. A huge thanks to ADFAS for their $1,000 sponsorship. This was a most successful Exhibition and it looks to have a bright future. It was a very good opening and well attended and will hang for the month of October. The committee have been too busy to hold a monthly committee meeting!

Yours in Art,

President
