BARILARO BRINGS GRANT TO ART

JOHN Barilaro MP the NSW Deputy Premier and Member for Monaro was at the Queanbeyan Art Society Gallery to announce a Government Grant for improvements to the Queanbeyan River bank art gallery. A $71,250 grant was presented to Barry Cranston the Art Society President on site last week which brings the total funding from the NSW State Government in recent times to $176,250. So far in the development of the QAS Gallery mindful committees have made sure this art facility has always been protected for the community and the progress of art. The members are very supportive of the monthly Art Competition/Exhibitions and there are on average of 120 works hung every month with many works sold throughout the month. "This local Art Society is recognised as one of the most active and progressive art bodies in the state of NSW and I am proud to be able to be part of its future development for Queanbeyan", John Barilaro said. "I have watched my hometown Art Society grow into a wonderful art facility for its ever-increasing membership with more art classes, workshops, exhibitions, art meetings etc. and a local community hub that caters for all forms of art, fellowship, friendship and a community hub much needed in country towns and cities'.

The NSW Deputy Premier is keen to purchase some local art!

CHARLOTTE COMES HOME

THE return to Queanbeyan of Charlotte Faunce in a wonderful Jiawei Shen painting now commanding the wall at the Queanbeyan Art Society Gallery. Charlotte moved to Queanbeyan in 1836 with her father Alured Taskar Faunce, Queanbeyan's first Magistrate. She married Alexander Ryrie in 1860 at the Queanbeyan Church of England, had seven sons and two daughters and grew up at Dodsworth Queanbeyan.

Peter Ryrie deliverers the Charlotte Ryrie painting to the QAS Gallery with QAS President Barry Cranston.

YOUNG ARTIST EXHIBITION

THE Australian Decorative & Fine Arts Molonglo Plains will again sponsor the QAS Young Artist Art Competition/Exhibition on Sunday 6th October 2019 at the QAS Gallery. ADFASMP President Carole Polson was delighted with the success of the 2018 Young Artists Awards. All schools in the Region will receive entry forms and the form will be on QAS web site www.qasarts.org. The Molonglo Plains Group has moved to the Queanbeyan Kangaroos Club to hold all their monthly Art Lectures. The monthly ADFASMP Committee meetings will be returning to the QAS Gallery on the first Tuesday of the month.

YOUNG ARTISTS CLASSES STARTING

THE Queanbeyan Art Society will try and arrange for young artists to attend classes at the society gallery on a regular basis. Art teacher Natasha Verma will be the regular art teacher and would like to find out from QAS members and any parents if they could contact the Society with numbers interested and preferred days or nights and times to draw up a programme as soon as possible. When the days and numbers are finalised the cost will be worked out and interested artists will be advised. Natasha is keen to hear from anyone who has a young artist wishing to take part in such classes. Of course not everyone will agree which are the best days and times. QAS member Natasha is pictured with one of her works which sold at a QAS Annual Art Show in City Walk, Canberra. 0418863428 or 0439392709.

ART THERAPY

AN Invitation to Participate in Art Therapy Workshops:

Art therapy uses the creative process to facilitate personal growth in a safe and supportive environment. It can help expand self-awareness, explore emotions, build confidence and a sense of purpose through creativity. Art therapy is accessible to all ages, levels of artistic ability and incorporates all media. We are two Certified Art Therapists, and have just opened discussions with the QAS to hold art therapy sessions in the gallery. Bridie Macgillicuddy is a freelance curator and writer.

She has over 20 years experience working in galleries and museums, including 10 years at the Australian War Memorial. Working closely with members of the military community, she has observed the profound impact that art can have on an individual's wellbeing. She is about to undertake her Masters in Art Therapy at Western Sydney University.

Jo Tregear has a business background. She has been a facilitator, executive coach and consultant for the past 25 years with a focus on leadership development, interpersonal skills and team effectiveness.

Have you ever wondered what your art is trying to tell you?

Jo Tregear and Bridie Macgillicuddy

DEGAS SAW ART

Delicate florals in soft pastel – Tutor: Louise Corke

at Queanbeyan Art Society on the weekend of March 23/24

Suitable for beginners and advanced pastellists.

Cost: Members $130, non-members $180.

QAS is delighted to welcome Louise Corke, Master Pastelist with the Pastel Society of Australia, to conduct another workshop at QAS. Details of what to expect at this workshop, and the materials list, is shown below. Framing Pieces, at Mitchell, is able to provide most, if not all, the papers and pastels listed.

In this workshop we shall explore together painting the fragility of the flower to enhance our ability to render the delicacy of each precious petal. It is all too easy to paint a flower that is stiff and lacking a sense of the gracefulness and elegance. This weekend will unveil some simple techniques to address these concerns.

Techniques shall be explained with clarity and logic to enable an understanding of how to render the tactile quality of fragility. We will see how it is that pastels allow for this process to be accomplished through an often not explored approach.

Exercises shall be undertaken to build confidence and experience with the method before applying to a more finished artwork.

RIP WENDY

A well known QAS member Wendy Downie passed away recently. Wendy set the bench mark in presenting the QAS Art window at the Queanbeyan Riverside Plaza Art Exhibition. Wendy had experience in fashions and art displays and added a special touch to our window. A well liked lady will be missed!

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

WHAT an exciting start to the 2019 art year with the Society receiving a $71,250 grant from the NSW Government National Party member John Barilaro MP.

John of course is also the NSW

Deputy Premier and a strong supporter of the art society.

Another welcome announcement is the possibility of the Society adding more 'strings to its bow' with the strong possibility of having regular Young Art Classes and Art Therapy Classes. Our committee has been a strong advocate to make more use of the gallery facilities and last year this was evident when the Sculptures became members and now have regular classes every week in the evening at the gallery. There is no doubt that now we are using the new Working Gallery there is more foot space in the gallery.

I had two great quotes this week directed at QAS; the first by John Barilaro when he walked into the gallery and saw no tables and chairs to work off in the back Oil Room, 'The Gallery Looks Like A Gallery'.

The other from a Council employer when asked about something bigger for the gallery, 'QAS Is Too Successful'!

It was wonderful to see such a good turn out for the Joy Rogers Exhibition opening!

Yours in Art,

Barry Cranston
