BALLIS/GREINKE EXHIBITION HUGE SUCCESS

THE 2019 Annual Ballis/Greinke Portraits and Drawings sponsored Art Exhibition/

Competition has proven to be a huge success with record entries and a quality not surpassed. The Ballis and Greinke names are instrumental in 'saving' our art society over many years of difficult times and their QAS Life Memberships were awarded for their dedication to and love of the Art Society. This year there are 150 works hanging in the gallery and good judges believe the quality has never been better. With the inclusion of miniatures it has given members a further opportunity to display their art. Page two displays the winning works and judges' comments. Our thanks to Ann Hand for standing in as a judge for Jill and Phillip Greinke.

SUCCESSFUL BRING AND BUY

QAS committee member Karen Hall and co organiser Patricia Fleming held their most successful Bring and Buy at the Gallery at the exhibition opening. Members had the opportunity to buy many unwanted art materials at bargain prices and raised $800 for the Society.

ART TRAIL LEADS TO WIN TV

THE Queanbeyan Art Society had wonderful coverage over the Canberra Regional Win News. The Queanbeyan Palerang Regional Council Arts Trail was the main feature but just enough air time to given to the story to include QAS. WIN reporter Michael Hammond showed genuine Interest in the arts during the interview.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

WE have come through one of the Society's busiest periods and it is pleasing to know that members and friends have stepped up to make sure we did not fall at any hurdle. I have never seen QAS in a better position in providing for our members and the wider community. Having an Art Competition/Exhibition every month is something very special and Pam Padovan tells me we have had 14 Gallery Workshops this year so far. Our membership is growing by the month and these days we cater for a wider array of arts (sculptures, acting and young artists) at the Gallery. The present Ballis/Greinke Art Exhibition is hanging for the month but should have a longer duration in the Gallery because there is no doubt it is one of the finest we have presented. The Society is also preparing for the annual Christmas Art Competition/Exhibition and this year it is pleasing to have a sponsor in AUSCERT. members have started to plan for another exciting Xmas party!

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
President

SUPPORT SOCIETY

Hi Members, I have been asked by some members how they could support the Society.

1. In the QAS Newsletter an ad is $25 per month for members. 2. For example, in the monthly entry form for our Exhibition 'Paint Like A Master' there are different $ awards for you to have naming rights. 3. To sponsor a full naming rights for an Exhibition is typically $250. On average there are 120 works entered. 4. QAS has an annual art calendar with every member having a painting in the calendar. A page ad on a month is $25.

Hope you can consider these proposals.

ART OF VERSE

ART comes in many ways through song-dance-music-brush to be adored.

Art comes to many who never knew such feelings before.

Art will cling like only a link in a strong chain. Art finds a level which our minds will try again. Art needs no special skill because it is within.

Art can start for many reasons and feelings begin.

Art will let you know which way you should go. Art has its special gift it knows which way to go. Work in progress!

GOULBURN GOES STREET ART

GDAS entered a float in the Goulburn Lilac Festival in October. Member Bryce

Ronning kindly donated the use of his truck and also decorated it. Our members wore new T-shirts so we were more recognisable as, armed with palettes and brushes, we walked along beside the well sign-posted vehicle. After the parade some of us perambulated along Auburn St and through the crowds at Belmore Park distributing the Annual Art Prize leaflets and briefly speaking to numerous people about it. A huge success!

QAS HISTORY IN THE MAKING

As early as 2006 the QAS Newsletter ran a front page story on the innovation and action on the part of the committee when gallery space was inadequate at the Society premises.

The committee had arranged for three tutors for the three Workshops in oil, acrylic and Japanese Art but our present Gallery (2006) would not allow us to conduct all in the one venue. So taking the bit between their teeth (QAS) the Queanbeyan Parish Hall was booked for that weekend to stage the Workshops and of course allowing enough room for The Art Store on site shop. Having three fine tutors in Val Fitzpatrick (Mixed Media) from Canberra, John Lacey (Oil) from Adelaide and Jan Vincent (Japanese Art) Canberra on Saturday and Sunday.

QAS 2020 ART CALENDAR FOR SALE

THE QAS members 2020 Art Calendar is out on sale for only $5 with members' artworks featuring in the calendar for free. QAS is one of a few art societies that has a annual art calendar for its members and this year includes the Exhibition Winners and the QAS 2020 Calendar of Events. Support your Art Society!

ADFAS YOUNG ARTIST SUCCESS

WE had the QHS Assembly on Tuesday and all the students involved in the ADFAS Young Artist received school awards. The school community was so excited that so many students were involved and won prizes. So on behalf of Queanbeyan High School I would once again like to thank the ADFAS Molonglo Plains and Queanbeyan Art Society for holding such a wonderful event that gives all our young people the chance to be involved in a real exhibition. Our goal is to encourage young artists and support them so that they see art as a life long journey. Heartfelt appreciation Kind-est regards & best wishes, Jacqui Ryding Visual Arts Teacher Queanbeyan High School.
