AUSCERT CHRISTMAS EXHIBITION

THE AUSCERT Art Exhibition is one of the of the best Christmas Party Exhibitions hung at the QAS Gallery and many of the 150 works have sold.

Some of the sales features on pages 4 and 7 and no doubt with the Exhibition hanging for two months more paintings will be sold.

With restricted conditions for the opening it was held in two parts having the prize awards early and the afternoon tea later. Nothing restricted members from making the joy of a Christmas Party and it was pleasing to see many make the effort to come out to celebrate which has been an outstand year for QAS.

Only fifty 2021 QAS Art Calendar was available and they sold for $5 like 'hot cakes'!

The QAS committee announced there will be some big money spent from a NSW Government Grant. The first product to have the Gallery floor covered with a new surface.

QAS 2021 ART CALENDAR $5

THE 2021 QAS Art Calendar is on sale at the Gallery.

Members are asked to support the Calendar as the Society is not looking for a profit.

Members have a work in the Calendar for no cost but the $5 helps pay for the printing cost.

They make excellent gifts for family and friends!

GENEROUS DONATION

THE QAS Committee would like to thank a member and her partner for a generous donation to the QAS endeavours (as she put it).

Not wishing for any public acknowledge-ment they just are happy to help their local organisation.

'As a full time worker and week-end artist I have been greatly inspired and encouraged by the QAS', said '?'

'As President of the QAS I would like to thank '?' not only for your thoughtful donation but to know joy the Society has given you as an artist.

Since the inception of the QAS it has been a haven for a friendly and joyous place for its members, once again thank for your generosity', Barry Cranston.

MAKING A QUEANBEYAN ART WALL

LET us think beyond 'the wall' and create something to promote the Queanbeyan Riverside Plaza and the Queanbeyan Art Society by a turning this Plaza wall into a piece of Art.

First off it might look a little over the top and how could we get the art up on the wall but before the Street Art artists get their hooks into the site we should be creative enough to fill this wall canvas.

I am no wis kid but surely there is a product that could put individual images on the wall and change them on some form of rotation.

Of course the works could be spaced out with less paintings.

Mind you no one has been to the Plaza to ask if 'we' can use the wall and of course there has been no costing other that I am sure our members would jump at the idea.

Is there a over head projector to put the images on the wall?

Visitors to Queanbeyan would remember that place that had the live art on the riverbank wall.

If anyone has any further ideas re this 'pie in the sky' please give the QAS Newsletter editor a call 0439392709.

GARDEN EFFORTS

QAS prides in having lovely artists and some 'paint' our garden with kindness.

LIFE DRAWING CLASSES

DRAWING the human figure is a fundamental art learning and has appeared in fine art throughout history. It also helps artists develop skills in observation, proportion, perspective, expression, line, colour, tone and contrast. Invaluable skills for any visual art practice. Figure drawing (life drawing) can seem daunting but is also very enjoyable. QAS runs an un-tutored life drawing art group on Monday afternoons from 2-4pm throughout the year. Due to social distancing there are limits to numbers but we do have very limited spaces available. All skill levels are welcome including beginners. All you need is some paper and a pencil to start.

Contact Michael Creagh on 0410 191 130 if you would like attend one session or join the group on a permanent basis. Cost is $20 per session (to cover the model fee).

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

WHAT a wonderful ASCERT Art Exhibition that hangs in the Gallery, I would have to say it one of the best Christmas Art Exhibition we have hung. The verity and the size of this Exhibition is pleasing. It should get plenty of viewing because it hangs for two months. It pleasing to see one of our most experienced artists Andrew Smith is taking over the QAS Workshops from George. He had already mustered some excellent tutors but we must thank Pam and George for developing the QAS programmes. It is pleasing to report we have two wonderful members who have donated $ to the Society but want to remain a numinous, we thank you for your support it is appreciated! A huge thanks to this years committee lead by Rosanna, in a very difficult year the committee stood their ground and produced one of the best on record.

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
President

2021 QAS WORKSHOP PROGRAM

THE Queanbeyan Art Society has developed an exciting and diverse range of workshops for 2021. We have several nationally recognised tutors joining our local Canberra and Queanbeyan tutors next year. Together they will provide you with enthusiasm and encouragement to take your art in a new direction or to enhance your skills base in your chosen medium. These workshops will be ready to book in the New Year once pricing has been finalised. In the meantime, we will be accepting Expressions of Interest from 12 December 2020. Prices are likely to be between $160 and $240 for two-day workshops and Julie's portrait workshop will be under $100. All of these will make great Christmas presents so get in early.

Date Tutor Description:

13 -14 February Paul Margoscy Walk on the Wild Side.

This workshop will show you the beauty and wonder of wildlife art. Using watercolours, gouache, pencil, ink, pastel or acrylic you will learn to paint feathers and fur, but also paint attitude, character. You will also explore airbrush techniques to paint backgrounds.

20-21 March John Wilson Into the Light - Creative Landscapes in oils. You will be exploring the subtlety of our Australian light and atmosphere as well as composition, colour mixing and techniques used in the craft of oil painting. The workshop will begin with a short theory session followed by step by step demonstrations of each painting.

10-17 April Julie Ballis Portraits for All

Over two 3 hour group sessions you will receive tuition from Julie as you paint two portraits (live models). In addition, you can separately book with Julie two x 2 and ½ hour private portrait lessons for $55 per session to refine your skills.

17-18 July Charles Sluga Mixing it up in Watercolours

Take watercolour to the edge and find out what it is "really" capable of doing. Go beyond the prosaic and create visual poetry in watercolour. This two day course will focus on the COMPLETE process of painting in watercolour- from the initial concept to the final masterpiece.

14 -15 August Leigh Walker Acrylic

Further Information to come.

17-24 October Tim Hardy Experimental Drawing

Drawing is a perfect way to experiment artistically, because drawing encourages spontaneity and directness. Through a series of drawing exercises in this workshop you will be encouraged to: loosen up and become more adventurous; become more expressive; and grow in confidence about your own styles of creation.

13-14 November Kerry McInnis Be Brave (Acrylics and Pastel mixed-media)

The aim of this workshop is to encourage attendees to loosen up their approach in representing a subject. By using a broad and rather "wild" technique, we want to capture the elements of a subject that have engaged the artist without becoming trapped by our effort to represent the physical "exactness" of the subject. The idea is to work quickly with energy and spirit.

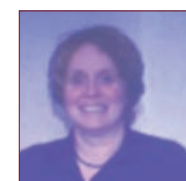

We are confident that we can run workshops for up to 12 people within the QAS premises while maintaining social distancing and meeting the current Covid-19 restrictions. We look forward to 2021 being a great year of Art at QAS.

Further information including a short course outline and artist bio for each tutor will be available soon along with a price list. QAS encourages you to book early to reserve your place.

Expressions of Interest should be completed by email to Andrew Smith on artbyandrew@iinet.net.au
