RECORDS FOR EXHIBITION NUMBERS

IN one of the most exciting Anything Goes Exhibitions ever held by QAS the hangers had trouble finding enough hooks to hang the 195 works.

Not only has this Exhibition seen such large numbers entered but a rush of new members surfaced which will add to the strength of the Society.

Judge Anders Mykeltvedt was full of praise saying it was one of the best Exhibitions he had seen at the Gallery and congratulated the artists who had entered.

One of the features is the variety of paintings and along with the wonderful colours has the Gallery glowing for a spectacular Exhibition.

Artists were rushing to get their works into the 'Anything Goes' Exhibition and Susan Cresswell was just one who made it!

IAN FOR PRESIDENT

MEMBER Ian Sharpe has taken the position as President of the Art Society Of Canberra. We wish Ian well in the new position and sure he will continue with his QAS commitments. This whisper is out that the QAS President is pushing for a 'Combined Christmas Party'.

QAS LEADING THE WAY TV ART EDUCATION

THE QAS is the first to venture into 'covering' the Gallery in five TVs, enabling it to deliver better Workshops etc. Tutors will be able to present their Workshops in a more professional manner and will give a better delivery to their class. The innovation means more artists will be catered for, beating COVID 19 distancing problems. The Society will now be able to cater for a larger crowd at the Art Exhibition Official Openings.

There will be coverage in every gallery. QAS holds a large number of Art Educational Workshops which is a huge benefit to regional art. Another benefit is security.

EDUCATIONAL TVs TAKES OVER QAS GALLERY

Installing the head TV in Working Gallery

In Working Gallery (Front)

In Working Gallery (Middle)

In Oil Gallery

Ron Vella (LM) and Andrew Smith

ANDREW Smith (Workshop Convenor) arrived during the QAS Committee meeting and finished installing conduit for the TV's.

Andrew also connected his Go-Pro camera (just for the demo) to demonstrate the success of the connections and so we could see the successful transmission of tutor type video/TV images.

It was a great success.
We could see clearly and a new camera will be even better.

NEW AUDIO VISUAL SYSTEM FOR WORKSHOPS

THE Workshop program for 2021 commences with A Walk on the Wild Side with wildlife artist Paul Margocsy on 13 and 14 February. This workshop is fully booked.

Our workshops have to comply with COVID regulations so we have, with the help of a grant from the Queanbeyan-Palerang Council, installed an Audio Visual system into the Gallery workshop rooms. The AV System consists of two wall mounted 4K UHD Televisions in the main workroom and one wall mounted 4k UHD Television in the Oil Paint exhibition room. With the help of a tripod mounted 4kUHD Video Camera we will live stream the tutors workshop demonstrations throughout the workshops. While we aim to allow participants to take it in turns to come to the front and watch the tutors' demonstrations, we will restrict this to two or three workshop participants at a time. The 4K UHD AV system will allow the participants to work safely while viewing the details of the demonstrations in the highest quality.

Participants will no longer have to strain to get a view over someone else's shoulder. The system was operational on QAS's first intake day, Saturday 30 January.

John Wilson's Oil Painting Master class will be held in March. This Workshop is also full. Julie Ballis' Portrait workshop still has a few vacancies. This is a really good workshop to enhance your portrait skills. Julie is also offering workshop participants extra one on one tuition at her studio after the workshop to allow you to fine tune your portrait skills.

Charles Sluga's water colour workshop in July is full.

We will soon send out promotional material for the workshops in the second half of the year. Judging on how fast the first few workshops filled up you will need to book in for these workshops quickly.

Warm regards Andrew=

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

THANK you artists, both members and non-members, for making the effort to be part of the QAS 'Anything Goes' Exhibition, a marvellous achievement for us to hang 195 works.

I am very proud to think QAS can pull such an Art Exhibition together and display it in our Gallery on the bank of the Queanbeyan River. Some may have doubted that 'we' QAS would not go the pace of holding an exhibition every month but the true believers proved them wrong. Thank you to the Committee and members!

What a wonderful addition to the Society, the new Educational Cameras throughout the Gallery. Our thanks to Queanbeyan Palerang Council and the 'boys' for installing the equipment - Andrew, Ron and Stuart.

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
President

It is pleasing to see member Ian Sharpe take up the position as President of ASOC, I am sure he is bound to do a good job with plenty of time on his hands!

Southern Tablelands Arts and Queanbeyan Art Society

Achieving more together...

Southern Tablelands Arts (STA) has a long and successful history of working with artists and cultural organisations in the Queanbeyan Palerang region. As COVID hit, the QPRC Council voted to cancel its membership status of STA, effectively stopping us from supporting council cultural endeavours and our creative community who benefit from STA services.

As the new Executive Director of STA and a Queanbeyan resident, it was lovely to meet with members of the Queanbeyan Art Society committee recently. We had the opportunity to discuss ideas and possibilities to support Queanbeyan Palerang Council to re-establish its long-standing relationship with STA and allow the full scope of support and services to be once again offered into our community.

QPRC is one of seven councils that are part of the STA territory as set down by Create NSW and the State Government. Through our contributing councils, STA supports our creative sectors, which are a major economic force and a critical part of the cultural landscape of this special place where we live. The state government and STA know that the creative sector needs ongoing support to continue to thrive in our communities. STA is part of a statewide network of Regional Arts Organisations which exists to provide this support across N.S.W.

Contributing Councils and their residents enjoy all the benefits STA offers, including a range of core services and program of activities as well as a variety of rich projects. These are too numerous to list here, but a quick look at our website is a great place to find out more. www.southerntablelandsarts.com.au 2021 is set to be a massive year for STA. We have significant funding through Create NSW to RESTART the creative economy in our territory through a range of innovative programs set to inject resources into our area. These programs include a micro-grants system for artists, creative commissions and a small venues festival for performers.

There is also a new STA website boasting a Creative Directory, Grants listing and STA Kids portal. Already set are multiple dates for professional development workshops for artists and kids holiday activities. This is additional to our core set of services for councils and creative communities.

We are also building an interactive cultural tourism online destination in partnership with our colleagues at Southern East Arts who work east of the QPRC border.

STA is proud of the depth and breadth of what we bring to our contributing councils and residents.

We offer a cost-effective model for councils to support their residents, whether they be creatives or audience members. With core funding from Create NSW,++ council contributions form a fractional proportion of our operational costs. Please email ao@southerntablelandsarts.com.au for more information about what STA provides and hope to soon have available once again for residents of the QPRC region. STA has a regular presence in QPRC, so I'm also happy to meet or be invited to talk about the benefits of STA membership to individual makers and cultural groups.

STA looks forward to working with everyone in the QPRC region again soon.

SUGGESTION FOR MEMBERS ART PICTORIAL

I have submitted this 'idea' for QAS Members to consider making a family Art Pictorial of their art works and experiences.

The idea came to me having too much time on the computer and realised I have mustered more paintings over the years than I realised. Let me assure members I do not have my paintings in a regulated format and I had to do some digging and found many more than I realised I had.

If I was doing it again I would make sure I filed the works sold and dated them. This is a family idea because who knows the grandchildren may get some pleasure out of knowing Pop was also an artist. I have been given a quote from the QAS Newsletter Trendsetting Digital Printing and it is the best of four quotes.

Know doubt some of our members would have some form of their art recorded but I found this very satisfying - quite surprised just how many paintings I have painted and sold. It has been fun putting it together.

Please contact me if you wish to know more.

Quote: 40 pages—A4 saddled booklet—Full colour throughout—Trimmed to size.

2021 QAS WORKSHOP PROGRAM

THE Queanbeyan Art Society has developed an exciting and diverse range of workshops for 2021.

We have several nationally recognised tutors joining our local Canberra and Queanbeyan tutors next year. Together they will provide you with enthusiasm and encouragement to take your art in a new direction or to enhance your skills base in your chosen medium.

These workshops will be ready to book in the New Year once pricing has been finalised.

In the meantime, we will be accepting Expressions of Interest from 12 December 2020.

Prices are likely to be between $160 and $240 for two-day workshops and Julie' portrait workshop will be under $100.

All of these will make great Christmas presents so get in early.

Andrew Smith
Workshops Coordinator

20-21 March John Wilson Into the Light - Creative Landscapes in oils.

You will be exploring the subtlety of our Australian light and atmosphere as well as composition, colour mixing and techniques in the craft of oil painting.

The workshop will begin with a short theory session followed by step by step demonstrations of each painting.

PAINTING MISTAKE

THE sale of a Jenny Roset painting was recorded in the QAS 2021 January Newsletter but it was incorrect and the painting belonged to Margot Gough. The sale was done on a viewing of the QAS 2021 Art Calendar which also had the wrong name recorded. Sorry Margot, we are waiting for the intended buyer to collect your beautiful koala.
