NEW QUEANBEYAN COUNCIL LEADERS

THE Queanbeyan Art Society is looking forward to welcoming the newly elected leaders to the Queanbeyan-Palerang Council.

Councillor Kenrick Winchester is the third mayor of the Queanbeyan-Palerang region in 30 years.

The council's first Indigenous member, Councillor Esma Livermore, has been announced as deputy mayor.

QAS rents the gallery cottage from Council and has had a great deal of support from Council to develop the Queanbeyan Art Society into one of the best regional community art centres in Australia.

THREE JUDGES FOR ANYTHING GOES

THE judging for the QAS Anything Goes Art Competition/Exhibition a mammoth job for the three judges Beverley Wood, Lindy Klintworth and Virginia Bayard with 145 works hung.

This Exhibition will hang for the month of February 2022 and with such a variety of works is expected to attract many sales. The QAS committee is looking to have the Gallery open for longer periods with such an excellent Exhibition available.

If any member would like to make themselves available please contact the secretary.

Judges Statement

We three judges can assure the artists that we did a thorough job, a difficult and an enjoyable one. We weighed up the skilful use of the various media, the vitality and the array of personal interpretations and subject matter. There were preferences at times to recognising the quirkiness and features of our environment in this part of Australia. Of course, not all will agree with our results but you must all agree on the superb quality of the artwork. Thank you for allowing us to indulge in exploration of your work and congratulations for making your ideas a visual reality.

WEDNESDAY PAINTING GROUP

THE QAS Wednesday Group are back into full swing. Stuart (on right) has come up with a unique 'ante smudging rest' for pastel painting. It just hooks over the top of the canvas or board but does not touch the work and anyone interested I am sure Stuart would help you. Heather Holland is making good progress on a beautiful butterfly.

WANTED

THE QAS Committee is keen to have the QAS Gallery open for longer periods and is seeking help from the members. Usually every day of the week the Gallery has been open with an art class with a coordinator but at this stage Thursdays and Saturdays don't have coordinators and the Gallery is closed. It would be ideal to have members painting again on these two days with a coordinator and hopefully that will happen. QAS has a wonderful record for selling members art but it will be difficult if we can not stay open every day and it would be ideal for the Gallery to be open for longer every day. In the meantime if any members can help by volunteering their services please contact the secretary Pam Nielson. Tennis is popular at the moment so, the ball is in your court members.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

It is another exciting venture for the QAS by opening up our membership to young artists from 12 to 18. No many Societies encourage young members but we need to bring new artists and new ideas to the QAS. This Newsletter has a big section on the ADFAS Young Artist Art Competition in October 2022 and I would ask all members to spread the word on this $2,000 plus event. If given the right 'air' this should develop into one of the major events for young artists to develop their artistic skills. The committee is also looking at introducing some form of Aboriginal Art to the society and would like members to have some involvement in how to develop such an exciting idea. The QAS Gallery is on Ngambri/Ngunnawal land and in the future at all our Exhibition Openings we will be recognising this land and the people that have come before us. The committee has been mindful of the Covid problems but has programmed for 'we are on until we are off!'

COMMITTEE MEMBER GROUNDED

QAS Committee Member Carole Polson was missing from the Anything Goes Exhibition opening but had a very good excuse. Carole was on a mission to get the afternoon tea from Costo but became entangled in the Canberra Protest for a few hours. The afternoon tea had to manage with biscuits. Thank you Carole it must have been trying!

Julie Ballis with her portraits of Kristy McBain. Photo: Helen Musa

WITH entries to the $75,000 Darling Portrait Prize at the National Portrait Gallery now closed and the $100,000 Archibald Prize closing in March, it's the time of the year when Canberra-region artists are very busy. Veteran Queanbeyan portraitist, Julie Ballis, was found at her studio on the weekend putting the finishing touches to her Archibald entry, a portrait of Federal Member for Eden-Monaro and former Mayor of the Bega Shire Council, Kristy McBain. Ballis has painted her against an impressionistic background hinting the Bega region bushfires, an event, in the artist's view, that had bought out McBain's kindness and practicality. After two sittings, one in McBain's Queanbeyan office and another at the studio, Ballis had first done a small oil version and then, in August, she began painting the larger portrait, which will be her entry. She found McBain an easy subject to warm to, but had spent a lot of time working on the texture of the facial skin, she said. During a phone conversation earlier in the week, I discovered that Bungendore artist Kerry McInnis, after entering one work in the Darling Portrait Prize, was now working on a different view of the same subject, the Gulgong-based ceramic artist Chester Nealie, which she plans to enter into the Archibald.

2022 QAS WORKSHOPS

QAS Workshop Co-ordinator, Andrew Smith, has assembled an exciting program of art workshops for 2022. After two years of Covid cancellations Andrew has negotiated to bring back many of the postponed workshops from 2021 and added some popular workshop tutors to run extra workshops. When Andrew cancelled last years workshops, he advised those who were booked and paid that they would be given priority access to the rescheduled workshops in 2022. This was considered fair given the circumstances of the cancellations were outside the control of the registered participants and in most cases they had purchased their workshop materials. Hence, those courses marked (RESERVED) are not open to all members in the first instance, they are reserved for 2021 members registered on those workshops for a 2 week period until 17 December. Following that date an announcement of any vacancies will be made to all members and general bookings will be opened.

To register for Workshops that are not reserved, send Andrew an email andrewsmith@grapevine.net.au and nominate which workshop you are interested in attending.

For reserved workshops, if you were registered in 2021, send Andrew Smith an email andrewsmith@grapevine.net.au confirming that you would like to attend on the new scheduled 2022 dates.

THE Queanbeyan Art Society is keen to make the Annual ADFAS Young Artists Art Competition/Exhibition one of the most prestigious events on the QAS Calendar.

The Society has always fostered young artists with regular young art classes and of course ADFAS has come on board in recent years as a major sponsor. There is a need to promote young artists and the committee is looking at every avenue to put this event as one of the Society's premier Art Competition/Exhibitions.

Already another sponsor wants to contribute to the ADFAS event and if it can be supported further it will develop into becoming one of our major calendar events. One of the ideas behind the Young Artists event is to help these artists understand how to enter such events and to mix with other young artists sharing their ideas and experiences. Members are asked if they have any ideas how to promote this event through schools or get more sponsorship. Please contact the QAS secretary Pam Nielson 0428623700.

Members please promote this outstanding QAS event for young artists.

REQUEST TO MEMBERS AND FAMILY

THE QAS Committee is seeking the help of all members and their families to promote the ADFAS Young Artist Art Competition/Exhibition on Sunday 2nd October 2022.

Of all the QAS Art Competition/Exhibitions this could be possibly one of the biggest and most beneficial for the future of art in the region. Not only will this year's new awards be more attractive than previous years but the number of art awards gives a bigger scope for all age levels. A huge new promotion is the Winning School $200

Art Materials Award to the school to the Overall Winning Artist, this hopefully will attract the schools and art teachers to come on board.

The QAS Committee can only do so much to promote such a great art Exhibition but we have an army of family and friends who can also shoulder

'The Art Wheel'.

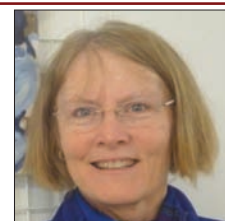

Now that the QAS has opened up a special membership for young artists aged from 12 to 18 years for only $10 it is bound to increase the membership.

Should anyone need more information or entry form etc please contact QAS Secretary Pam Nielson.

ALL WELCOME

ACT, Australia, Puzzling Pandemic, acrylic, 20 x 20" (50 x 50 cm)

Finalist

My Inspiration

The inspiration for this piece was the Covid-19 virus changing its colors with each mutation and creating life, health and economic destruction around the globe. Each individual is fighting one way or another. This artwork is my reaction to the current "puzzling" situation we're all experiencing together, expressing my inner turmoil through art that helps soothe the restlessness of lockdowns and social isolation.

My Design Strategy

As an artist I use my art to reflect my experiences and feelings—like this piece, my response to the pandemic. In order to effectively articulate my emotions during this time I have used an abstract format and reworked an old piece, as it was not reflective of my current state. Abstract format allows for freedom of expression without restricting myself to a planned outcome, resulting in some beautiful surprises.

My Working Process

I started off by pouring diluted pure primary colors onto a primed stretched canvas, giving the colors space to merge and mingle. I then added some secondary colors to the canvas to create some movement and shapes and left the paints to dry. As the canvas dried, I focused on the feelings, emotions and thoughts it provoked within me. I came back to the piece and added shapes and symbols that were reflective of my response to the colors, shapes and the pandemic. Noting that the use of bright colors represents beauty and hope for life as we come out of the worst of the pandemic.
