SCULPTURE GROUP CONTINUES TO GROW

We have had a wonderful start to the year returning on 25 January.

At least four newcomers this year, and the group is continuing to grow. We have a steady mix of drawers/sculptors with some experimenting with new media.

Late last year, 15 members of the Wednesday night sculpture/life drawing group enjoyed a walking tour looking at sculptures on the grounds of ANU and dinner after. Kindly organised by Phil Cleaver, the group covered the green surrounds of the ANU, walking around 2.8km and looking in on 23 of the public sculptures, before stopping half way at "Badger & Co" for dinner.

By twilight, the group finished the evening with a viewing of Extended column (1972-75) by Norma Redpath at the music school, and Reclining figure (1982) by Olavi Lanu at the art school - oAll in all a lovely evening! For more information see the ANU Sculpture Walk Brochure.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

I would like to thank our QAS Committee members for their outstanding efforts for 2023 it has been a wonderful year for the Society. It is great to be involved in an active group who are all working to the same gold making it a active and friendly art society!

Hats off to our members who have entered in this months Art Competition/Exhibition 'Anything Goes' it is a credit to you with (170 entries) but the quality appears to better with every Exhibition.

I would like to welcome on board the THIRTY 4 Cafe & Restaurant in Crawford Street Queanbeyan who are showing QAS members paintings every month. I would ask all members who go to our cafes who display our art please make yourself known it all helps. For those who attended the Anything Goes Exhibition Opening they would have noticed the huge crowd at the new Mexican Cafe next door.

Now we have to take advantage of this and attract them into our Gallery!

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
President

2023 QAS WORKSHOPS

THE 2023 QAS Workshop Program is almost complete, and we will commence bookings for all workshops from 12 December 2022 (noting the John Wilson Workshop bookings opened in March 2022 and the Julie Ballis Portrait Workshop will initially be open only to last year's participants until 2 January 2023).

QAS is changing the booking system this year to streamline bookings and reduce the burden on the workshop coordinator and treasurer in accounting for attendance and payments. If you reserve a position in a workshop, you will need to pay the full amount for the workshop within three months before the workshop to secure your position. We will no longer be accepting deposits.

QAS is introducing a refund policy this year to recognise the costs incurred by QAS when members are unable to attend a booked workshop. If a member is unable to attend a booked workshop and provides sufficient notice to enable a replacement to be found, the member will receive a refund for the full amount paid minus a $30 cancellation fee. If QAS is unable to find a replacement, a cancellation fee of 50% of the workshop fee will be charged. If there are exceptional circumstances, the member may apply to the executive to have the cancellation fees reviewed.

We have held the workshop fees at the 2022 level for all 2023 workshops. Note the fees below are members prices with non-members paying a surcharge of $45 for each workshop.

18-19 February – Julie Ballis – Portraits. Workshop fee of $90

Learn to paint portraits, any medium, two afternoons, two models, two portraits. During this workshop, Julie will walk you through the steps of creating a lifelike portrait. (This is a rescheduled workshop and priority will be given to participants who were booked into the October 2022 Workshop)

23-24 March – John Wilson 2 day Oil painting Master class Workshop – Into the Light

Workshop Fee $230 - This workshop is almost full

25-29 March – John Wilson 5 day Oil painting Masterclass Workshop – Into the Light

Workshop Fee $585 - This workshop is almost full

22-23 April – Amanda McLean – Journal Making and Journaling – Workshop Fee $180 plus a payment of $25 to Amanda for a Journal making materials kit. Amanda will provide you with the materials to make a journal and on the first day of the workshop you will be guided through the process of making a unique journal. On Day 2 you will experiment with various journaling techniques as Amanda leads you through a series of exercises in your new journal.

20 May Maxine Sumner – Using Yupo Paper – Workshop Fee $50. In this one day workshop Maxine will take you through the tips and tricks you need to know when using Yupo Paper with water colour and other mediums. You will mainly be working with water colour. The workshop fee includes the Yupo paper you will use in the workshop.

17-18 June – Ev Hales – Watercolour - Scrutinizing the limits of “Scapes” – Workshop Fee $230.

Ev Hales is coming to Queanbeyan Art Society for the first time to take you on a two day journey to create several watercolour “scape” masterpieces. She is a very accomplished artist and tutor, and you can see examples of her work at www.evhales.com

22-23 July – Stephie Clarke – Pastels - Creating Floral Treasures Workshop – Workshop Fee $230.

Stephie will also be making her first trip to Queanbeyan Art Society to teach you her unique steps of using hard and soft pastels on floral, fruit and other still life paintings. Stephie is an accomplished tutor and artist who is best known for free and flowing paintings uninhibited by rules and boundaries as she creates incredible depth in her work. You can see examples of her work at www.stephieclarke.net

12-13 August - Ted Lewis – Masterclass in Oils Workshop – Workshop Fee $230

16-17 September - Leigh Walker - Working with acrylics: a journey through the layers

Workshop fee $180

To book, send an email to the workshop Coordinator atqasworkshopandrew@gmail.com to reserve a position. You will then be directed to make a payment by direct bank transfer to the QAS account. Once this is received, your position will be secured.

MEMBERS PROFILE JILL GREINKE

HERE is a saying by Paul Cezanne. "A work of art which isn't based on feeling, isn't art at all." So whether beginners, or, further along the track, if what we love comes through, we'll get there. It's good to have help along the way though.

Like most QAS members, art is a balance between our families, the kitchen, domestics, the garden and community. But somehow, the creative urge survives it all, and can be contagious. Although I had no say in it, I was born into two families who had two successful artists, plus those like me, who enjoyed art with the life around them. My Gran was a fine exponent of the translucent grape and brown gravy school. My first inspiring teacher was Roy Knudson, who taught in the small local school where I lived. Knowledge and technique flooded into my fourteen year old life, and it never left. As a nurse in a city hospital, I became a "professional". No super tech in those days (1956 and on). I could draw. So for goodies from the canteen, I did the illustrations for those in my years and beyond. Amazingly I flew through my exams, and didn't starve in a garret. Creativity flowed as a young mother, into home making and involving children in fun. Rainbow jellied Easter Eggs still remembered. With children now at school, classes at art school with Jan Brown, Ante Dabro and Janet Dawson included sculpture, life drawing, composition and creative drawing, with works selected for the school's end of year exhibitions. Further studies included life drawing and portraiture with Tom de Lucy and a Sydney University course, "Techniques of the Old Masters", which, for me, was invaluable. Years of private study followed. Awards included first prizes for oil, watercolour, pastel, and drawing, with subject matter depicting landscapes, still life and portraiture. Paintings have been represented in selected exhibitions in Sydney, Hunter's Hill and Camden, and in Melbourne as a member of the Victorian Artists Society. Paintings were also represented at the Canberra Artists Society, Canberra Art workshop and the Queanbeyan Art Society. As a tutor, private classes, group classes with QAS, and adult art for TAFE in the local area kept me busy. It has always been a joy to experience seeing others see fulfilment in their art journey.

This grew with my marriage to Phillip Greinke, as with our love of painting and teaching, we were able to share our love of community, and help the emerging art society, which is now QAS.

A break from painting is giving me time to see how to move forward. However as a judge, it is inspiring in seeing the many fine works by QAS members flow through our doors each month. Never repetitious, and never dull, and a real challenge for the judges. For me, art has taught me to see beyond the surface, as music has taught me to hear beyond the surface. The artist, what and how they express what each one sees on the day is the inspiration. That is much more vital than my "bits of paper." details are tucked away somewhere, but what is now, is much more interesting.

MEMBERS PROFILE DEE BOARDMAN

I have always been drawn to 'Arty' hobbies, many years ago I tried folk art, ceramics, and decoupage but deep down I always wanted to be an Artist. I promised myself after I retired, so I tried water colour & acrylic which I struggled with and I realised I needed some direction, so I joined QAS. I was warmly welcomed as a new member. After a short time, I accepted the position of Treasurer/Membership Coordinator. Although I was out of my comfort zone, I was given lots of help and encouragement and stayed in the position for 6 years. I made a lot of new friends and one suggested I should attend a Pastel Workshop with Louise Corke. I immediately fell in love with pastel, I've learned from looking at other QAS members works, workshops, YouTube videos and lots of practice. Over the past eight years I have received some prizes, had some sales and for the past two years had an exhibition, 'The Joy of Art' with Karen Hall and Pam Padovan, which was a dream come true.

MEMBERS PROFILE DAVID BRINTON

DAVID Brinton joined the Queanbeyan Arts Society in November 2022 as he has always had a keen interest in watercolours, particularly the Western Watercolour School. Nearing retirement, David wanted to do something completely different.

Having spent 26 years in the Air Force as an Avionics Engineering Officer, David moved over to the APS as an Executive Director in 2005 and still works in a technical/commercial role.

As a Queanbeyan resident since 2005, married to Alison, with two daughters, a son in law and two granddaughters, David attends art classes at the society every Sunday and is thoroughly enjoying the people and discovering watercolours.
