MAYOR OPENS MOLONGLO CATCHMENT ART EXHIBITION

THE QPRC Mayor Kenrick Winchester opened the Annual Molonglo Catchment Art Exhibition although he had a busy schedule and had to leave before the Society was able to show him and wife Cathy the usual hospitality. QAS has a long association with the Mayors of the Region and the visit was appreciated. President of the Molonglo Catchment Group Karen Williams expressed her delight to judge such a well presented Art Exhibition and the work gets better every year. Guest Speaker Mark Butz was well received.

VIEW CLUB VIEWS GALLERY

THE Tuggeranong Day View Club enjoyed a visit to the QAS Gallery and Dee Boardman and Karen Hall organised a lovely morning tea.

They were interested in the different art media and impressed with the artwork on display. Most of the ladies bought a QAS members' card and said it was lovely to see so many well presented art works. QAS will be producing a flyer advertising visitations to the QAS Gallery for any groups who would like to come any day.

FLOWERS FOR SUE

MEMBER Sue Rabbage has been awarded a spray of flowers for service to the Society.

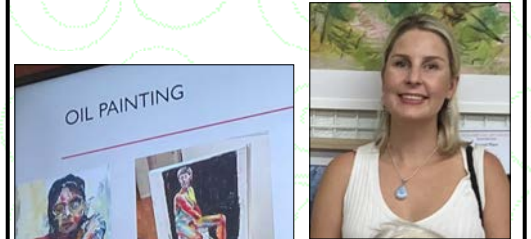

QAS has a band of workers who 'farm out' members' works to three venues and it takes a switched-on coordinator to muster and return to Gallery if not sold.

Any member looking for their painting, Sue will know if it has sold!

Thank you Sue!

OFF TO THE QAS GALLERY

THE QAS will be having an all-out effort advertising for more visitations to the Gallery. After the recent success of the visitation to the Gallery by the Tuggeranong Day View Club the Committee is keen to develop a flyer to invite such organisations. If there are members who have contacts to clubs, retirement villages and other groups please contact the secretary Kay Lenehan 042711772.

The recent visit to the Gallery by Cr Kenrick Winchester QPRC Mayor claimed it was a Gem and please to have such an attraction for Queanbeyan.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

THANKS to Cr Kenrick Winchester QPRC Mayor for finding time in his very busy schedule to open the Molonglo Catchment Art Exhibition. The Society has had an excellent relationship with many Mayors and it is pleasing to see 'Mr Mayor' has now viewed the value of the Arts at the Gallery. Recently we had a visit from the Tuggeranong Day View Club and these lovely ladies enjoyed the visit so much it gave me the idea that we should advertise the availability of visitations to the QAS Gallery. I am sure many groups would enjoy a trip to the Gallery. The View Club ladies bought a painting and many members' art cards. The Molonglo Catchment Group Art Competition/Exhibition proved another success and many thanks to Karen Williams for the excellent judging. I would ask members to please keep an eye on the closure of the Gallery because we have builders coming in at different times.

Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
President

PLEIN AIR BLUES

(composed during a coffee break in the studio)

Plein Air will open your eyes
To the world that out there lies.
You'll perceive it, you'll get it just right.
Take all of your stuff: pack light.
Plein Air will engage the senses,
The sounds, the scents, the textures
And – aah – the magical light!
Plan to catch it: leave at night.
Plein Air brings a sense of place.
Nature calls – find your very own space
Behind a tree or back from the lake.
Take care: don't squat on a snake.
Plein Air will help you to hurry.
In any one spot don't tarry.
You're observing nature – it's true.
But think: it's looking right back at you.
Plein Air will give you a rush
As you hack your way through the bush –
Off track, over hills, through creeks.
This adventure could last for weeks.
Plein Air is a must for great work.
Really – you should try not to smirk.
If the venture doesn't tug at your heart,
At least you have suffered for your art.

MAP MEMBERS ART PROFILE 2023

WELCOME to the QAS Map for 2023. Another 12 months ahead of us now after a heartening full exhibition and workshop program last year. You are invited to nominate yourself for a Member Art Profile exhibition at QAS in 2023. For new and older members, that means inviting you to exhibit at QAS on a dedicated section of our exhibition walls, for a personal exhibition during a month of 2023. MAP exhibitions are from February to December/January. I think this will be our 9th year of successful, artist-celebrating and varied MAP exhibitions at QAS. Great for you, for your resume, for visitors and others to see your works hanging proudly there. Please email me now if you wish to have a MAP Exhibition this year. The works can be new, or works completed over time. Works are for sale. We will start in February, and you may have a collection of works ready. Please email me this week. If you know you will be away or unavailable for a month or so, please add that into your email. I'll aim to have the MAP program set up by end of next week. Looking forward to hearing from you, Rosanna Burston

Popular tutor Ev Hales has a wonderful skill in demoing upside down which gives perfect viewing for the Watercolour Class!

Ev Hales –The Upside Down Painter

THE Queanbeyan Art Society (QAS) recently hosted its 8th workshop of the year, featuring the talented watercolour artist Ev Hales.

The workshop proved to be an enlightening and liberating experience for all participants, as they delved into the world of watercolour painting with the guidance of this renowned artist. One of the key lessons learned during Ev Hales' workshop was the concept that "there are no rules." Ev encouraged participants to let go of preconceived notions and to embrace their own unique artistic voice. She challenged traditional approaches and techniques, inspiring participants to think outside the box and experiment with new possibilities.

Throughout the workshop, Ev Hales emphasized the importance of exploring and pushing the boundaries of watercolour painting. Participants were encouraged to embrace the fluid nature of the medium, allowing the colours and brushstrokes to take on a life of their own. This freedom of expression enabled artists to create dynamic and captivating artworks that truly reflected their individual styles. Ev's unconventional approach to watercolour painting was truly inspiring, as she demonstrated the transformative power of breaking free from the constraints of rules and conventions. Her enthusiasm and passion for the medium were infectious, leaving participants feeling inspired and motivated to continue their artistic journeys.

Ev also inspired all with her ability to paint upside down. The workshop with Ev Hales was yet another successful event hosted by the Queanbeyan Art Society. The Society remains committed to providing diverse and enriching experiences for artists of all levels, nurturing creativity and fostering artistic growth within the local community.

A special thank you to all of the Queanbeyan Art Society members who worked to make the event so successful. Whether you helped set up and pack down or you helped on the workshop days, your efforts are greatly appreciated. For those who missed this exciting workshop, keep an eye out for future events with Ev Hales or other talented artists. The Queanbeyan Art Society continues to organise a variety of workshops, exhibitions, and events, offering opportunities for artists to learn, create, and connect. Remember, when it comes to watercolour painting and artistic expression, there are no rules.

QAS CRAFT MARKET

Hi All, Please note that the next CRAFT MARKET was held at the exhibition opening in July 2023, not August as printed in the newsletter. If you would like to book a stall to sell your craft items at our next market on Sunday 1 October 2023, please contact Belinda Ingram on 0404 166 934. Also, if you make miniature art/sculptures or jewellery or other craft items and would be interested in having them sold in the Gallery (inside the glass cabinets in the front room), could you please contact me with your name and what type of items you would like to sell. Hopefully once the books are relocated to the back room book shelves there should be enough room for a reasonable number of items in the cupboards. You will have to factor in Gallery commissions into your prices, but I will advise interested people of further details later - for now I just want to get an idea of how many people will be interested in putting items in the cupboard and what sort of items you have. You can email me at heather@hollogram.net. I have no transport at present but as soon as my chariot is going again I will try and get over to remove the books and clean the cabinets ready for us to use.

We are always looking for door prize raffle items too, if anyone has anything they would care to donate - just bring them to the gallery at the next meeting and give them to Belinda or myself (or any other committee member).

Memberships are also due now, so a renewal form is attached and you can also access one from our website.

You need to be a member to exhibit work in most of our exhibitions or to sell cards or future craft items.

If you have already renewed, please disregard this reminder.

Please contact me if you have any queries about your membership. Have a creative day. Cheers Heather Holland

QAS Membership Secretary.

GALLERY CLOSURE

GALLERY Painters and Gallery Sitters please note

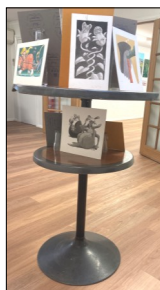

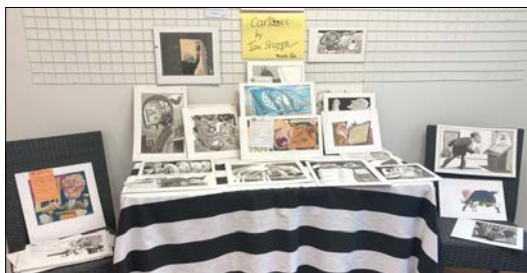

Members, your committee have been working towards the electrical upgrades at QAS. It's getting close now and we anticipate the work being done in July. Funds for this work are through a NSW Government Grant to Queanbeyan Art Society. Through QPRC we are sourcing tradesmen to complete the work.

There will be a few days when the Gallery is closed while the work is done.

We will give you as much notice as we can.

THANK YOU IAN

FORMER Canberra Times Cartoonist Ian Sharpe has donated a large portion of his works to the QAS and they have been well received at the Gallery. At the July Exhibition opening the interest in Ian's work saw over $200 worth of his works sold. Ian's display will be at the gallery for the month of July. He has become a very active QAS member, a regular with the Tuesday Plein Air Group and a member of the QAS Committee.

It was an eclectic of works by Yarra Rossa residents. "It was pleasing to see the works dated in the official programme from 1972 to 2023 and while some of the artist do not paint these days several were keen to enquire what QAS can offer and I distributed the QAS Newsletter". "Kerston Cameron the Coordinator is to be congratulated in the professional way this exhibition was presented", Barry said.
