QAS MEMBERS LERIDA WINERY ART EXHIBITION

ON WINE BARRELS

FOR an entry fee of $20, payable to QAS, you will receive a 16 inch diameter, round, craft wood circle on which to paint. There is no specific theme. It can be anything you imagine the dinners in the Barrel Room would find pleasing, as they sit and enjoy their delicious meals, prepared by the chef at Lerida Estate.

You can purchase your craft wood circle from the gallery during the Opening of the Queanbeyan Leagues Club Exhibition from 1pm on 4 August.

At this stage there will only be one board per artist but hopefully more boards will be available well before the entry date of 28 September.

Obviously, the craft wood circles lend themselves to oil and acrylic paint, however with a little imagination other mediums are possible.

The wooden circles will be attached to the barrels using velcro so they can be easily removed without damage to the barrels. This will be done as the boards are being hung. Paintings will be judged, and Lerida meal voucher prizes awarded. First prize $200, 2nd prize $150, 3rd prize $100.

All works will be for sale at a common price of $150, so please include the usual information you would provide for a QAS exhibition on a label attached to the back, to enable a room sheet to be prepared. All commission on the sale of the paintings will go to the Queanbeyan Art Society.

Paintings will need to be submitted to the QAS gallery no later than Saturday 28 September 2024.

These can be dropped off during Gallery opening hours.

Be part of this novel exhibition which is sure to attract a lot of attention!

QUEANBEYAN ART SOCIETY GRANT

Queanbeyan Art Society Committee is pleased to commend to Members the capital works achieved for the gallery building over 2023-2024.

Using a grant of $55,000 from the NSW Government the Society has been able to achieve a fantastic refurbishment to the Gallery: Electricals, Air Conditioner, Building Works, Painting as well.

Although much of the work is invisible: in the ceilings, roof, walls, meter box, outside, it has been done very well by generous local tradesmen and companies. We are delighted that this refurbishment equips the gallery for now and the future. Grateful thanks to: NSW Department of Regional Affairs Grants Management Office, QPRC especially Peter Callander and Brenton Zubrinich, Liz Dixon- Deputy Director Illawarra and South East, Department of Regional NSW, Helen Marx QAS Member and to all others who helped in this project.

Rosanna Burston (QAS Grants Manager).

THE Lerida Winery on Lake George on the barrel Art Exhibition for QAS members is going to develop into a wonderful opportunity for our members to display their art, sell and promote the Art Society. One would hope that as many members and friends as possible support this special opening. It is hoped the regular QAS Tuesday Plein Air Group will be going to the winery that day to paint and for the opening. I would ask members to have a look at page 12 of this QAS Newsletter we have tried to expand some of the up coming Exhibitions etc.

Well done to the Saturday Gallery Group for coming in and filling the Working Gallery, it is good to see so many smiling faces! A big thank you to Rosanna Burston for her huge effort in arranging the $55,000 Grant programme. These grants are appreciated and it gives us artists much pleasure to know that the arts are able to get these grants.

TED LEWIS' WORKSHOP A GREAT SUCCESS

LAST weekend, the Queanbeyan Art Society had the pleasure of hosting an oil painting landscape workshop led by the talented Ted Lewis, whose work can be explored at tedlewis.com.au. This immersive workshop was a remarkable journey into the world of landscape painting, where participants were guided to create landscapes that captured both the serenity of a snowy morning and the playful energy of children by a dam.

Ted's calm and peaceful manner set a perfect tone for the workshop, making it a highly enjoyable and educational experience for all. On the first day, participants were treated to a captivating demonstration as Ted completed a stunning gum tree painting in just 22 minutes, showcasing his incredible skill and setting an inspiring example for everyone.

Throughout the workshop, Ted's generous and patient teaching style allowed each artist to delve deep into their creativity. Painting the tranquil scene of a drover's hut in the snow and the lively image of children playing by a dam, participants learned invaluable techniques for capturing mood, light, and detail in their work.

Ted's hands-on guidance ensured that everyone, regardless of their skill level, could leave with a masterpiece they were proud of.

The Queanbeyan Art Society is immensely grateful to Ted Lewis for his dedication and expertise, which transformed this workshop into a memorable and enriching experience. Ted also donated two workshop scenes to the QAS raffle so with a bit of luck, you too could own a Ted Lewis original.

Workshops are supported by a lot of members and particular thanks go to the Friday Gallery sitters who toil away setting the workshop space up. Then we have our helpers who provide morning tea, keep the gallery tidy and pack up during the two days. The workshops continue to get great reviews from our new members from out of town. This is largely due to the merry band of helpers. A big thank you to you all.

QAS DEE BOARDMAN MAP

I have always been drawn to 'Arty' hobbies, many years ago I tried folk art, ceramics, and decoupage but deep down I always wanted to be an Artist. I promised myself after I retired, I would get started, (I wish I had started sooner) so I attended an 8-week water colour botanical class with Nilavan Adams which I loved. After some health issues for 12 months, I realised I needed some direction, so I joined QAS. I was warmly welcomed as a new member, and soon after I accepted the position of Treasurer/Membership Coordinator. Although I was out of my comfort zone, I was given lots of help and encouragement from past Treasurer and my Husband, I stayed in the position for 6 years. I made a lot of new friends and one suggested I should attend a Pastel Workshop with Louise Corke. I immediately fell in love with pastel, although I have not had any formal training, I have learned from looking at other member's work. I have enjoyed attending workshops with Trish Taylor, Paul Margoscy and Stephie Clark. Also watching YouTube videos and lots of practice. Over the past nine years I have fortunate to receive some prizes, made some sales and in 2021 and 2022 I had an exhibition, 'The Joy of Art' with Karen Hall and Pam Padovan, which was a dream come true. I was honoured to receive Life Membership from QAS and continue to enjoy submitting new paintings every month with each competition. I love trying out new challenges such as water, fur, feathers, and glass. I love being a member of QAS for the friendship, support and the creativity of its members. Dee.
