A MEXICAN ART EXHIBITION

THE QAS is looking to 2025 to develop a Mexican Art Exhibition after a visit from Anna the owner of the Mexican Cartel Café next to the QAS Gallery.

Anna arrived in all her glory to the QAS November Exhibition opening and it was a delight to see her dressed in the beautifully Mexican costume.

The colours are an artist dream and the QAS President Barry Cranston suggested the society should introduce a Mexican Art Competition/Exhibition. The committee will look into next years program.

Seeing the Opening afternoon tea Anna asked where did we get it from and offered to do-nate the afternoon tea for every QAS Exhibition Opening for free.

As they say 'that's what neighbors are for'.

Thank you Anna!

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

A big thank you to Julie Ballis and Jill Grenike for their sponsorship and professional judging for the November Exhibition. We are lucky to have two long time members who have served and supported the Society, thank you both. Their experience over the years has helped the Society to reach the heights it has.

The Cartel Mexican Café next to the Gallery has made generously offer to provide afternoon tea for the QAS Exhibition Openings for 2025. The owner Anna visited the gallery to give us the excellent news.

Looks like a Mexican Exhibition coming up next year!

Yours in Art,

The Art Society offers Art Competitions/Exhibitions eleven times a year and quality Workshops. In 2023 QAS sold $34,000 member's art. Join the Art Society that paints a picture of friendship and fun!

Membership $45 June to June!!!

QAS WORKSHOPS

From Our workshop co-ordinator

We have 6 workshop's available right now. I am about to put 4 more up this week once I finalise a few details. Then I am working on two more.

So lots of opportunities for members.

Catherine Hamilton is running a mixed media course for us next year and also a pastel with ink and acrylics. Both are fabulous workshops that will enable members to explore a mixed media art experience. They are live on Humanitix now.

There will be additional watercolour workshops by the end of the week.

If you could pass this onto members and advise that bookings to workshops can be made now, that would be good.

If they go to Humanitix.com.au they can search for Queanbeyan Art Society and then choose to follow us on that platform and every time a workshop is published they will be notified. We have already sold out two workshops and almost filled two others in just four weeks. So members need to get in quick.

Warm regards,

QAS MAP LOUISE EMMETT

LOUISE EMMETT

My painting subjects come from all Australian states and territories, UK, Europe, South Africa and North and South America. I try to choose the painting medium best suited to the subject and have exhibited completed pieces in oil, acrylics, pastel, watercolour, and mixed media. I have attended courses with John Wilson, Grace Paleg, Ev Hales, Paul Margocsy and Chris McClelland as well as several ASOC Summer Art Experiences.

Awards
I have received many first, second and third awards over the years from the Queanbeyan Art Society and one from the Artists Society of Canberra, a First Prize for Best work in the style of a 19th Century Master.

Memberships:
I am an active member of the Queanbeyan Art Society and the Artists Society of Canberra. I have participated in many painting groups in Queanbeyan and Canberra. One of the best I have experienced and continue to enjoy is Rosanna's Outdoor Painting Group that meets every Tuesday in all weathers and at an amazing variety of locations in both cities.

Challenges
My first solo exhibition was quite an education. The challenges that remain are improving my pen and wash on Tuesdays, my oil and watercolour paintings and trying a portrait, a still life, a floral arrangement, and even digital art when the opportunity arises. A recent resin workshop has sparked yet another interest.
