QAS THRIVES ON DEDICATED VOLUNTEERS

THE Queanbeyan Art Society thrives thanks to its dedicated volunteers, who help organize events and create a welcoming, connected community for artists and art lovers alike.

Explore information about exhibitions, classes, and membership opportunities at the QAS website, gasarts.org and check out the news at their Facebook Page and Instagram

Stories from the Studio: Kay Lenahan at the Queanbeyan Art Society

It's always a high point of the week when we get a chance to visit the Queanbeyan Art Society.

The Queanbeyan Art Society (QAS) is a vibrant and welcoming community that nurtures creativity and the arts within the region.

Established to promote and support local artists, QAS provides an inclusive platform where both emerging and established artists can showcase their works, collaborate, and grow.

QAS offers a range of activities, including art exhibitions, workshops, and events that encourage both artistic development and community engagement. Whether you're an artist or an art enthusiast, the QAS provides opportunities to connect with like-minded individuals who share a passion for creativity.

Regular workshops, classes and open studio time has started for 2025. There's no better time get creative.

John was born in Adelaide, South Australia.

He started work in the Public Service in Adelaide in 1952, coming to Canberra in 1967 to work at the Space Station at Tidbinbilla. His Master's Degree in Politics, Bachelor of Arts and Accountancy set him up for his 43 years of Public Service work, where he retired from the Taxation Dept. After retiring he did part-time real estate for a few years which he enjoyed. John loved his art, being a member of QAS since 2014. John was also in a group at the Seniors Club Woden and in a group known as the Silver Sprayers where they painted various murals around Canberra, one being at the Woden Bus Interchange. He was a very happy go lucky person who brought joy to a lot of people. John died in May 2024.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

THE first damaged painting has serviced and as yet we are not too sure how it has happened. A lot of hard work and time goes into putting QAS artists works at other venues for sale. I think this is the first time it has happened. On the bright side the March QAS Exhibition was short on entries because of the change of the 2025 Sections and there for not enough entry money to cover the prizes. Our membership Committee member Heather Holland kindly came forward and offer the $150, Many thanks Heather! Since Heather's offer another member has offered if it happens again.

What a wonderful membership we have. It is good to see Stuart

Marshal back play at our openings,

Well done Stuart!

QAS WORKSHOP WITH STEPHIE CLARK

The Queanbeyan Art Society recently hosted two inspiring two-day workshops led by renowned pastel artist Stephie Clark. The first workshop transported participants to Monet's Garden, where they learned to paint in the impressionist style of Claude Monet using pastels. Under Stephie's expert guidance, attendees explored the techniques and nuances of Monet's approach, resulting in a collection of vibrant and expressive artworks that captured the essence of the famous garden.

In the second workshop, the focus shifted to the stunning flora of the Australian bush. Participants were guided through the process of capturing the unique beauty and diversity of native Australian flowers using pastels. Stephie's passion for nature and her free-flowing style were evident as she encouraged participants to embrace the uninhibited and expressive qualities of pastel painting. The workshop culminated in a series of beautiful and evocative floral artworks that showcased the talent and creativity of the participants.

Stephie Clark, known for her free and flowing florals and fruits, divides her time between her studio in Armidale and teaching workshops both in Australia and overseas.

Her work has been featured in French magazine Pratique des Arts, and she offers tutorials and critiques through her Patreon site (https://www.patreon.com/12\_stephieclark). The Queanbeyan Art Society's workshops with Stephie Clark were a resounding success, leaving participants inspired and eager for more artistic adventures. A big thank you to all of the helpers over the four days. The Friday Gallery sitters make set up so easy and they now know the setup perfectly. Val Scott was invaluable over three of the four days, making all of the participants most welcome. Also thanks to Rosanna, Helen, Halina and Jolanta for all your help too. Our workshop volunteers get to hear some great lessons from our tutors and get to do some art between chores.

Alarm system and Locking Doors

There have been several instances when the Security firm have contacted committee members to advise that the alarm hasn't been set. If you are the last person to leave the gallery, please make sure that the alarm is set and that both doors are locked. Often the lock on the wooden door is on the snib, please release this so that the door can lock properly.

Do you want to run or attend an Afternoon workgroup?

We are interested in identifying if there is interest in running and/or attending afternoon workgroups. Running a group involves taking responsibility for collecting the attendance list and $3. Unlocking and locking up when the group has finished and recording any sales on the Square. Training in all the above will be provided. Afternoon workgroups could run any afternoon except Monday as that is when the gallery is used for Life Drawing.

QAS 2025 Workshop Program

We have sold out both Colley Whisson Workshops in June and have waiting lists of 7 for one workshop and 6 for the other, plus I have several other requests I have not processed.

Colley can fit in a two day workshop prior to the current scheduled workshops.

This will bring extra income to QAS, satisfy more members and bring us some new members.

Are we prepared to shut the gallery for two more days to allow this extra workshop to proceed? If so I will contact the waitlisted people and see if they would attend on those dates. If so I will then book the workshops.

Warm regards
Andrew

QAS Workshops

The Queanbeyan Art Society (QAS) workshop program for 2025 starts next month (February) with two fabulous pastel workshops with tutor Stephie Clark. Stephie is one of our best tutors, very generous with her time, sharing her knowledge and techniques and also with sharing her own pastels. This year she is back with two workshops: "Monet Gardens" 15-16 February and "Australian Bush Flowers" 18-19 February. Both workshops have a few vacancies. Julie Ballis is running her two half day portrait workshop on 8 and 9 March. Julie will step you through the process of painting a portrait in any medium. Great for beginners with some painting skills in the medium they choose but also for advanced students. We have quite a few vacancies for this workshop. Also in March we have a new tutor to QAS, Catherine Hamilton. Catherine is a dynamic and well regarded tutor, and she is running two workshops Mixed Media 2 day workshop on 14-15 March and Creative Pastel 2 day workshop on 16-17 March. Both workshops will be exciting and will allow you to express yourself in an environment that encourages you to experiment and take risks. All bookings can be made on the Humanitix.com ticketing service. Search for tickets by art tutors name or by using Queanbeyan Art Society in the search.

Once you have found the workshop you want to attend, click on the "Get Tickets" button and enter the required information and then make the payment. You will get instant feedback on your success.
